ANOTHER BIG FIRE HORROR IN NEW YORK

19 Persons Dead 24 Are Injured 200 Homeless FIRE!

FLAMES CARRY DEATH IN NEW YORK TENEMENT

GREAT HEROISM SHOWN BY RESCUERS

NEW YORK, MARCH 14.—NINETEEN PERSONS DEAD, TWO SCORE INJURED, SOME SO SERIOUSLY THAT THEY MAY DIE, AND NEARLY 200 PERSONS TEMPORARILY HOMELESS, IS, IN BRIEF, THE STORY OF NEW YORK'S LATEST FIRE HORROR.

THE VICTIMS OF THE DISASTER WERE TYPICAL EAST SIDE PEOPLE.

THE SCENE, A TYPICAL TENEMENT, AND THE SCENES ATTENDANT ON IT WERE SCENES COMMON TO THAT COSMOPOLITAN QUARTER.

TO APPARENTLY RECKLESS HEROISM SHOWN BY FIREMEN, POLICEMEN AND VOLUNTEER RESCUERS ALONE IS DUE THE FACT THAT THE NUMBER OF DEAD IS NOT GREATER, AS 200 PERSONS HERDED IN THE BIG FIVE-STORY DOUBLE-DECKED TENEMENT HOUSE WERE SLEEPING WHEN FLAMES FROM AN OVERTURNED OR EXPLODING KEROSENE LAMP IN THE BASEMENT SPREAD THROUGHOUT THE STRUCTURE AND WRAPPED THE ENTIRE BUILDING IN FLAMES ALMOST BEFORE AN ALARM HAD BEEN SOUNDED.

ONE CAUSE OF THE TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE WAS DUE TO NEGLIGENCE IN FAILING TO KEEP THE SKYLIGHT DOOR FREE AND CLEAR.

IT WAS NOT ONLY FASTENED TIGHT, BUT ALSO FROZEN.

AS THE FLAMES RUSHED UP THE STAIRS THE TENANTS DASHED FOR THE ROOF. THEY FOUND THE DOOR, WHICH SHOULD HAVE SWUNG EASILY OPEN, FASTENED DOWN, UNABLE TO BURST IT OPEN AND WEDGED IN BY THE SURGING MASS BELOW, NUMBERS WERE BURNED TO DEATH.

NEW YORK, March 14.—At least a score of persons were burned to death, several were so badly hurt that they may die, and forty others are slightly hurt, in a fire that destroyed a five story tenement house in Allen street early today.

The fire had gained great headway before it became known to most of the tenants, and many of them were cut off before they could make an attempt to save themselves.

Thrilling rescues and daring leaps for life marked the fire. Many persons were carried from the blazing building. Firemen climbed the walls on scaling ladders, braved the flames and reached the imperilled tenants. Of the bodies thus far recovered, only the following have been identified:

THE DEAD.

RACHAEL SOLOMON, aged 45.
JACOB SOLOMON, aged 16.
ISAAC SOLOMN, aged 18.
JESSIE COHEN, aged 15.
ROSE WEINER, aged 23.
SANDER WEINER, aged 4.
IDA MUSKOWITZ, aged 10.
HARRY KAUFMAN, aged 10.
ROSE MILLER, aged 4.
MORRIS MILLER, aged 5 months.

ON FIRE ESCAPES.

Crowded fire escapes in the rear of the tenement building was largely responsible for so many deaths and injuries among its population who approached 200 souls.

The scenes about the building after the fire and when the search for the dead was begun were heartrending. Nothing so pitiful of such proportions has been seen in New York City since the Slocum disaster, in which a thousand persons, nearly all of them women and children, lost their lives.

START OF FIRE.

The fire started in the basement occupied by Isaac Davis, his wife and three children. Davis had been out last night and returned home early this morning, went into his store on the same floor just in time to see a kerosene lamp in the rear explode. He awoke his wife and both tried to put out the flaming lamp, but without success, and then gave all their attention to getting their children out of the burning building. A policeman who heard the cry of alarm rushed to the scene, and every effort was made to arouse the sleeping persons in the house.

FLAMES SPREAD.

In the meantime the flames had spread with startling rapidity, and when the persons who had been asleep on the upper floors awoke, they found themselves confronted by a wall of flames on every side. The panic stricken people fighting for their lives rushed to the fire escapes only to find them littered with rubbish of all descriptions and almost impassable. Down through these cluttered narrow passageways flowed a stream of humanity.

ROASTED TO DEATH.

On some of the escapes the rubbish was so closely packed that it became impossible to pass certain points and men, women and children stood, literally roasting to death as the flames roared through windows around. One of the escapes, which ended near the roof of a shed about twenty feet above the ground, had been manned by Policeman John D. Dwan, who had run a plank across to the window of an adjoining building. Nearly a dozen persons had been carried across this narrow bridge by the policeman when the flames began to sweep around the lower end of the fire escape.

BRAVE OFFICER.

Rushing into the fire the policeman seized a little child and started on the last return trip across to the place of safety.

He had made only one-half the distance when the plank, burned more than half through, broke where it rested on the fire escape and the rescuer and rescued fell to the stone paved yard twenty feet below.

The man struck fairly on his back and one of his shoulders was shattered by the force of the fall. The child was uninjured.

SAVING PEOPLE.

In the meantime the firemen had run up ladders at other points around the building and dozens of people were being taken from the crowded fire escapes and upper windows. By this time the building was a furnace and the rescues were effected in many cases only after the greatest show of bravery on the part of the firemen.

HEROES PRESENT.

Heroes developed at this time. Lieutenant Bonner, son of a former fire chief, ascended the red-hot fire escape five times. Four times he came down with a woman or a child in his arms. The fifth time he was making for the street with an unconscious woman when his strength gave out. He staggered and would have fallen to death had not a comrade come to his assistance.

BRAVE MAN.

As Bonner reached a fourth-story window on one of his ascents, and dragged a little girl from a window where she stood surrounded by flames, she pleaded with him to let her escape and go in after her little brother, whom she had carried to the window. He had fallen unconscious and was roasting, she said. Bonner jumped through the window, and it seemed to those below as if he was going into a furnace. He found the little boy just inside the window and carried him out.

Fireman Hannigan repeated Bonner's feat on the floor below, rescuing Miss Fannie G. Insberg.

WOMAN ABLAZE.

A woman, her night dress blazing, was seen to crawl out of a window and start down the fire escape from the top floor. The hot iron blistered her feet and burnt deep into her flesh, but she continued on. The scaling ladders were run up close to the escape and a fireman had almost reached her, when a belch of flames covered her like a wave and bore her down. She fell back and died in sight of the horror-stricken crowd.

FEARED TO JUMP.

The position of those who had taken refuge in the rubbish-choked fire escapes became more and more desperate every minute. They feared to jump, and they could not wait until the scaling ladders reached them, so intense was the heat. Now and then one would jump to the ground with a scream.

FLING BABY.

A baby was flung into the arms of a policeman below by its fear-crazed mother. Just as the policeman caught the child the mother dived to the ground. Her body struck the policeman on the head and he fell unconscious. The woman escaped injury by the fall, but she had been badly burned. The baby was unhurt.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Death was reaping a harvest on other fire escapes on the building as well at this time. At the rear two men and two women were seen on the rear escapes. The women came first, but their escape was blocked by boxes of rubbish too heavy for them to lift. The men would then come to their assistance and hurl the obstructions into the yard. The quartet were descending slowly between the third and fourth floors, when flames burst from the windows all about them. The flames darted up from the third floor windows, enveloping the two men and two women. They fell and were roasted to death. Their bodies were brought down by the firemen.

SANK AND DIED.

Through the smoke another figure was seen on the fire escape on the fifth floor. The victim sank to the escape and died.

On the other side of the building lay three bodies, Mrs. Solomon and her sons, Isaac and Jacob. They had been overcome there by the flames. The other members of the Solomon family were seen to look from the windows and then fall back into the burning building. The elder Solomon, the husband and father, was one of those rescued by Patrolman Dwan. When he reached the street his whiskers had been burned off and he wore nothing but underclothing.

SEARCH FOR FAMILY.

For more than an hour he had been wandering around in this condition, searching for his family, when he came upon the bodies after they had been removed from the fire escape. As he recognized the charred remains he broke into passionate weeping, with agonized cries of "Mein kinder, mein kinder!" His experience was paralleled by dozens of others in the house.

AFTER THE FIRE.

After the fire was under control the street was filled with half-dressed, weeping people, seeking for their relatives, imploring the policemen to go into the burning building and rescue the loved ones whom they believed to be perishing there. Yet one man, whose family was saved, bewailed the loss of some jewelry left in his apartments, and begged a fireman to save it for him.

MOTHER'S EFFORT.

The desperate resourcefulness of some mother in her effort to save the lives of her children was shown when a bundle was seen to fall from a high window in the burning building and alight gently upon a heap of snow. In the center of the bundle, wrapped around by several thicknesses of blankets and comforters, was found a four-year-old boy, who suffered not at all from his unusual experience. The fate of the mother is not known.

WOODMEN ARE IN SESSION

BIENNIAL MEETING IS BEING HELD IN WACO, TEXAS.

WACO, Tex., March 14.—The head camp biennial meeting of the Woodmen of the World, including the camps of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico convened today.

The most important matter before the meeting is the proposed establishment of a great sanitarium at a cost of $200,000. The report of the sanitarium committee proposed a plan for disposing of the fraternity's building at the St. Louis World's Fair by removing it to New Mexico and using it for a joint fraternal sanitarium.

DOMINGO TREATY IS CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, March 14.—When the Santo Domingo treaty was taken up in executive session of the Senate today, Senator Teller again made a plea for an open session for the discussion of the law points which, he said, were involved in the treaty.

Objection was made by Senator Foraker to opening the doors.

After this question had been disposed of, for the second time during the debate on the treaty, Senator Morgan took the floor and discussed the Dominican debt for the purpose of showing that it was largely made up of fraudulent claims.

CITY COMMITTEE DID GOOD WORK

The Republican City Central Committee did excellent work during the campaign, and as a result a large majority was rolled up for the ticket. Frank Bilger, as chairman of the committee, was very active in his work and brought about good results.

CZAR'S WAR COUNCIL MEETS

Kuropatkin's Successor Discussed But No Decision Made.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 14, 4 p. m.—According to the information received here by the War Office, the remnants of General Kuropatkin's army have made good their retreat, and are now out of the immediate danger of a new turning movement north of Tie Pass. The Japanese are reported to be completely exhausted by their long, hard fight and are compelled to rest and undertake the tasks of burying their dead and looking after their wounded, prisoners and plunder.

NEWS IS LACKING.

The War Office admits, however, that Kuropatkin has not furnished specific information as to the whereabouts of General Kawamura, who is reported to be northeast of Tie Pass, or the Japanese columns reported to be pushing north by forced marches west of the railroad.

IN THE DARK.

Kuropatkin has also left the War Office in the dark in regard to the number of prisoners captured by the Japanese, having made no detailed report about the separate units.

Therefore, the general staff is in no position to contradict the Tokio dispatch detailing the Russian losses.

GENERALS FAILED.

While Kuropatkin has assumed full responsibility for accepting a battle at Mukden, he has complained to the Emperor that his plans miscarried miserably through the failure of two generals, whose names cannot be learned, to execute his orders. He also throws blame on some of the troops, which failed to respond properly at the critical moment.

WAR COUNCIL.

The war council held at Tsarskoe-Selo today, at which War Minister Sakharoff, General Dragomiroff and others were present, is understood to have decided the question of continuing the war in the affirmative.

Ways and means were discussed, but decision on some points, it is understood, was reserved.

KUROPATKIN'S SUCCESSOR.

The question of Kuropatkin's successor was also discussed, but the Emperor has made no final decision.

Grand Duke Nicolavitch, second cousin of the Emperor, and inspector general of cavalry, is again mentioned and General Grippenberg is said to be a candidate together with General Grodekoff, but the weight of opinion of the Emperor's advisers now favors General Zukholmlimoff, Governor-General of Kieff, who formerly was General Dragomiroff's aide-de-camp.

RUSSIANS HAVE REACHED PASS

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD, Monday, March 13, via Fusan, March 14.—The greater part of the retreating Russians are supposed to have reached Tie Pass.

The pursuing Japanese have frequent encounters with the rear guard.

General Kuropatkin must remove his supplies from Tie Pass if he plans a retirement to Harbin, as they will be necessary to maintain the army during the march. The Russians have no stores between Tie Pass and Harbin.

MAKES DENIAL ABOUT SQUADRON

ST. PETERSBURG, March 14.—A semi-official denial was given out today of the reported recall of the Russian Second Pacific squadron.

W. J. Spida, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, forfeited $10 bail in the police Court this morning.

NO PEACE FOR THE RUSSIANS

Japan May Make a Formal Proposition in a Week.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 14, 6:50 p. m.—The Foreign Office adopts a very firm attitude regarding the peace rumors today, again categorically insisting that Russia has not the slightest idea of peace.

There is nothing confirmatory of the reports to the effect that Japan intends to make a formal proposition to enter into peace negotiations within a week, and they are received with great skepticism.

An official of the Foreign Office, with whom a correspondent of the Associated Press talked, expressed great doubt whether Japan could offer a basis for negotiations acceptable to Russia.

Nevertheless, diplomatic circles believe that the ice once broken the belligerents will find a way without intermediaries to conclude peace.

Until Field Marshal Oyama has exhausted his last effort to secure the last fruits of his Mukden victory it is pointed out that Japan will not move, as naturally any proposal emanating from either side would be accompanied by an arrangement for an armistice.

St. John Gaffney, New York, Consul-General at Dresden; Edward W. Sims, Illinois, solicitor of the Department of Commerce and Labor; Peter Joseph Osterhaus, to be a Brigadier-General, retired.

Also promotions in the army and navy.

LARGEST DAM IN WORLD

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Secretary of the Interior has awarded a contract for the construction in Salt River Valley, a rise of what, when completed, will be one of the largest dams in the world. The project will be built in accordance with the terms of the national irrigation act. It will cost $1,125,000 and the work will be done by the O'Rourke Company, of Dallas, Texas.

In addition to overflowing about 350,000 acres of land the dam will supply water power for hundreds of places throughout the territory.

The dam, which will be known as the Roosevelt dam, will be twenty-two feet high and at its base will have a thickness of about two hundred feet. The work must be completed within two years, according to the terms of the contract.

The competition for the contract was lively, twenty-one bids having been submitted to Secretary Hitchcock.

KINIRY'S MOTHER WILL TRY TO SAVE BOY FROM THE SCAFFOLD.

People Try to Prove Prisoner Planned to Throw Blame For Murder on Dead Man.

MRS. J. L. WATSON, MOTHER OF P. DAVID KINIRY.

Damaging evidence was given against David Kiniry this morning by the Los Angeles officers now in attendance upon the trial of the case being conducted before Judge W. E. Greene.

Slowly and carefully District Attorney Allen is closing in upon the young man charged with the crime and while he may not be able to prove conclusively that Kiniry fired the fatal shot he is pressing the crime close home to him and showing that he was a desperate criminal armed and ready to shoot.

IN THE HOSPITAL.

Detective Paul E. Flammer, a member of the Los Angeles police force told of Kiniry's identification by him and then detailed the following conversation:

"I saw the defendant first in the hospital in the Los Angeles jail. It was about 10 o'clock on the morning of November 10, 1904, shortly after he had been arrested for shooting at Policeman Hendrickson. After looking at him I asked him his name and he told me that it was Fred West. I left him for a few minutes and went and looked at some records and then came back and said, 'Isn't your name David Kiniry?' He said, 'you're mistaken.' He did not say anything more for some time and closed his eyes. After a time, however, he spoke up and said, 'So it's David Kiniry you take me for is it! Well, have it any way you want.'

FEARED ARREST.

"I then asked him why he shot at Policeman Hendrickson when he attempted to arrest him and he said, 'I knew that if I was arrested that I might be identified as Kiniry and then have to go to Oakland and stand trial for the killing of Policeman Smith.' He told me that he and Joe Goldstein were out to do a job on the night of November 27th, 1903 and that they ran into a policeman and that Goldstein shot him."

Asked as to what, if anything, was said by Kiniry as to changing pistols with Goldstein, the witness said:

"Kiniry told me that as he ran up the street his friend called to him and told him that he was shot. He tried

The complete returns from the 55 precincts in the city show that the Republicans have won every office in the city government, save that of City Attorney. John McElroy, who had the Democratic, Municipal League and Union Labor nominations, defeated his opponent, Abe Leach, who had the Republican nomination by 591 votes.

Frank K. Mott, Republican nominee for Mayor, has a handsome plurality of 2260 votes; he lacked 643 votes of a majority.

The four Republican Councilmen-at-Large received splendid majorities, as well as the four School Directors-at-Large.

The ticket elected and the complete vote in the city is as follows:

FRANK K. MOTT, REPUBLICAN MAYOR ELECT.

BY FRANK K. MOTT.

The result of yesterday's election pleases and gratifies me very much, and I take this first opportunity of thanking the legion of friends who so loyally supported my candidacy. Our campaign was waged on clean lines and the issues put forth were honest, efficient and progressive government. The voters have approved this position and the new administration will, I am confident, redeem every pledge.

I made but one promise and that was to give the city the best I have, and I shall keep this promise always in mind. During the campaign I preached that public improvements was one of the essentials of good government, and first and foremost come our streets. I will not forget this, and it shall be my first and most important duty to look after our street affairs.

Yesterday I was a candidate for Mayor of a part of the people. Today I am Mayor-elect of the whole city, and it is my purpose to represent no faction, but the entire people. To be successful I must have the co-operation and support of everyone.

The citizens of Oakland by their votes have expressed their confidence in me, and it shall be my constant endeavor to maintain that confidence to the end of my term.

THE NEW MAYOR.

Frank K. Mott, the Republican Mayor-elect, was born in San Francisco January 21, 1866. His parents moved to Oakland in 1868, and he has resided in this city since that time. Mr. Mott attended school in West Oakland, and at the age of 13, two years after the death of his father, he sought and obtained employment as telegraph messenger. At 14 years of age he was clerk and operator in the telephone office, and at 16 secured employment in a hardware store at Tenth and Broadway. This business changed hands and in 1890 Mr. Mott acquired a small interest with E. A. Howard, and formed the firm of E. A. Howard & Company. This firm succeeded to the heavy hardware business of the former concern. In 1897 Mr. Mott purchased the interest of Mr. Howard and changed the firm name to Frank K. Mott. In 1900 the business was moved from Second and Broadway to its present location at 908-910 Broadway. Mr. Mott served in the City Council as successor to H. P. Dalton, being appointed by former Mayor George C. Pardee. He was afterwards the choice of the old First Ward in West Oakland for two terms. During the first term he served as president of the City Council for one year. Mr. Mott is unmarried and resides with his mother and sisters at 1066 Jackson street.

DAVE BORTREE IS NOT SORE

HAS A FEW WORDS TO SAY BEFORE BEING OSTERIZED.

Editor TRIBUNE—I take this means to thank the eleven hundred and eighty-eight friends who voted for me for the office of Treasurer and Tax Collector yesterday, and I can truthfully say that my not being elected does not grieve me as much as does the thought of the disappointment of my friends.

If there are any who promised to support me and then voted the other way, I will give them credit for trying to soothe my last hours before being Osterized.

For the victor, Charley Bates, I have only the kindest wishes, and I congratulate him from my heart on the high compliment paid him by his election, and I shall be most happy to pay him my taxes when the time comes.

D. E. BORTREE.

ABE P. LEACH IS SATISFIED

WOULD LIKE TO FIND THE MAN WHO CIRCULATED CAMPAIGN FALSEHOOD.

Abe P. Leach, prosecuting attorney of the police court and erstwhile candidate for city attorney, at the present time is offering a small reward, which may be increased later on, for the apprehension of the person or persons who circulated the report during the late campaign that he was a member of the Citizens' Alliance.

He also offers a reward, which is accompanied with the threats of punishment, for the person or persons who circulated the story that Mayor-Elect Mott and City Engineer-Elect Turner were also members of the Citizens' Alliance.

"On more than one occasion," said Mr. Leach this morning while resting after the campaign, "I offered to put up $500 against nothing to prove that I was not a member of the Citizens' Alliance and also to prove that Frank K. Mott and Mr. Turner were not members of the Alliance. That campaign lie cost me many a vote. It was the most difficult thing to disprove because it could be traced to no authoritative source.

"For my successful opponent, Jack McElroy, I have nothing but words of praise. He made a clean fight and beat me decisively which shows that the people wanted him. He made a good city attorney for two years and I think he will make a good city attorney for the next two years.

"I am surprised that I had so many loyal friends and can only thank them for their support. I started out in the race a little handicapped because of Mr. McElroy's nomination but I fought the best fight that was in me and lost. I was prepared to meet my enemies, politically speaking, but it was a shock to me that I had to meet some of my alleged friends. There were some double enders but that is only a small matter.

"The people have expressed their will and I will abide by it. For at least two years more I am for John E. McElroy for City Attorney."

FATHER YORKE ON ST. PATRICK'S NIGHT

The Macdonough Theater will be crowded on St. Patrick's night to hear what Father Yorke has to say on the "Irish People in Civil and Religious Liberty." Tickets are being sold at M. J. Keller Co.'s store Washington street; at P. J. Flynn's at Harrington & McInnis, printers, and at the parochial residence, 1267 Sixteenth avenue, East Oakland.

Those who wish to have reserved seats may procure the same at M. J. Keller's or the parochial residence for 75 cents and box seats for $1. Holders of general admission tickets may have them exchanged by paying the balance, 25 cents for reserved seats and 50 cents for box seats.

An entertainment of a dozen select numbers will precede the lecture. Messrs. O'Connor and Lynch will give an exhibition of Irish dancing and the O'Carolan Gaelic Choral society of Oakland will render the popular songs of the Gael. The many admirers of Miss Marion Fitton of East Oakland, will have an opportunity of hearing a medley of Irish airs, from her masterful touches on the piano.

FOUR THOUSAND BARREL OILER

The many San Luis Obispo people who are interested in the Brookshire Oil Co., as well as all their friends, will be delighted to learn that the Brookshire Co.'s No. 4 at Santa Maria, brought in Thursday morning at 3,800 feet, is flowing 4,000 barrels of oil daily.

A telephone message from Santa Maria to THE TRIBUNE at 9 o'clock last night said the well was still flowing and the noise can be heard eight miles away.

Late last night connection was made with a 36,000-barrel tank by a four-inch line, and another four-inch line will be laid tomorrow in order to allow the big well to flow to its full capacity. The pressure on the four-inch line was so strong that it broke when first connected up.

A big dyke reservoir will be built below the big tank to provide for future accidents.

This well is only about 300 feet from the famous Hartnell well of the Union Oil Co., San Luis.

HE IS NAMED IRISH SECRETARY

LONDON, March 14—Official announcement is made of the appointment of Walter Hume Long, president of the local Government Board, to succeed Wyndham as Chief Secretary for Ireland.

Gerald Balfour, president of the Board of Trade, succeeds Mr. Long; the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord of the Privy Seal, becomes president of the Board of Trade, retaining his former office and Allwyn Fellows Jr., Lord of the Treasury, is appointed president of the Board of Agriculture, succeeding the Earl of Onslow, who recently was appointed chairman of a committee in the House of Lords.

PROCTOR'S TRIAL.

The trial of William Proctor for stealing $108 he inveigled aged Emily Tyson of Niles to lend him under the supposition that she was going to marry her was continued this morning before Judge Melvin and a jury. The story of the taking of the money was a part of the same transaction when he took her rings for which he has just been tried and found guilty of petit larceny. The story is a similar one and the same witnesses are telling the same story only to another jury.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

THANKS ALL HIS FRIENDS

JOHN E. M'ELROY PLEASED WITH THE RESULT OF ELECTION.

BY JOHN E. M'ELROY, CITY ATTORNEY-ELECT.

The result of the election is certainly very gratifying to me. I am very thankful to the many friends who so earnestly and loyally supported me in the warmly contested campaign for the office to which I aspired.

I am particularly grateful to those friends who have known me from childhood and whose friendship I have retained through many years.

To those who opposed me, I have nothing but the kindliest feelings, and hope that the incoming administration will work together as harmoniously as the past administration, all pulling together for the best interests and solid advantage of the city of Oakland.

I may also state that in my official capacity I will not represent any faction or any party, but will stand as the representative of all people in my official capacity of City Attorney for the city of Oakland.

REV. DILLE BEFORE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury met for a short session this morning after a two weeks' adjournment, but transacted very little business. They summoned Rev. E. R. Dille before them to ask him some questions in regard to a purported report of a statement he had made from the pulpit, in which he was quoted as having said that a certain city official had been playing the races and took $600 of the city's money, which was afterwards made all right and the matter hushed up. Dr. Dille said that he had been misquoted and that the statement made by him was not about a city official but about a business man. After listening to Dr. Dille's statement the Grand Jury adjourned and paid a visit to the storekeeper in the basement of the Hall of Records where the stationery is kept. They also made an inspection of the county jail.

FLETCHER WILL CONTEST.

The hearing of the Fletcher will contest was continued this morning before Judge Ogden and jury. Dr. E. S. Littlepage was on the stand as a witness for the proponents of the will and stated that he believed the late Captain Leroy Fletcher was sane at the time he made it. He was one of the witnesses to the document and had been in attendance upon Fletcher for nearly a year prior to his death. He also had a letter he had received from Captain Fletcher while he was away on a visit to Arizona in which his thought were clearly expressed and seemingly there was no confusion in his mind at that time.

GIVEN DIVORCE.

A final decree of divorce was granted Hulda M. Fording this morning by Judge Melvin from Howard W. Fording on the ground of desertion. She was also awarded the custody of the minor child and $20 a month alimony.

Weak Kidneys

To any Kidney sufferer who has not tried my remedy I offer a full dollar's worth free. Not a mere sample—but a regular dollar bottle—standard size and staple.

There is nothing to pay, either now or later. I ask no deposit—no promise. You take no risk. The dollar bottle is free—because mine is no ordinary remedy, and I feel so sure of its results that I can afford to make this offer.

In the first place, my remedy does not treat the kidneys themselves. Such treatment is wrong. For the kidneys are not to blame for their weakness or irregularities. They have no power—no self-control. They are operated and actuated by a tiny shred of a nerve which, alone is responsible for their condition. If the Kidney nerve is strong and healthy the kidneys are strong and healthy. If the Kidney nerve goes wrong you know it by the inevitable result—kidney trouble.

This tender nerve is only one of a great system of nerves; this system controls not only the kidneys, but the heart and the liver and the stomach. For simplicity's sake I have called this great nerve system the "Inside Nerves." They are not the nerves of feeling—not the nerves that enable you to walk, to talk, to act, to think. They are the master nerves and every vital organ is their slave. The common name for these nerves is the "sympathetic nerves"—because each set is in such close sympathy with the others that weakness anywhere results in weakness everywhere.

This is why I treat not the kidney that is weak but the ailing nerve that MAKES it weak. This is the secret of my success. This is why I can afford to do this unusual thing—to give away FREE the first dollar bottle, that ANY STRANGER may know how my remedy succeeds.

The offer is open to every one everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. Those who have tried it do not need the evidence. So you must write ME for the free dollar bottle order. I will then send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle, standard size and staple. He will pass it down to you from his stock as freely as though your dollar lay before him and will send the bill to me. Write for the order today.

For a free order for a full dollar bottle you must address Dr. Shoop, Box B-280, Racine, Wis. Book 1 on Dyspepsia. Book 2 on the Heart. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Book 4 for Women. Book 5 for Men. Book 6 on Rheumatism which State book you want.

Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

ARE OPPOSED TO NEGRO

MANY DO NOT LIKE THE APPOINTMENT MADE BY ROOSEVELT.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Republican politicians who gather at State headquarters have heard reports from Washington to the effect that the Senate will not confirm the nomination of Charles W. Anderson, a negro, to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the Southern district of New York. Senators Platt and Depew, it is understood, will not openly oppose the confirmation of his nomination; in fact, it is said they will not have to do so, because the appointment is not likely to get out of the committee room pigeonhole.

Roosevelt did not consult the New York Senators about the appointment of Anderson to this most important Federal office. After he had decided on the nominations he told the Senators it would be a personal appointment. On that ground they acquiesced. Republican politicians in this city were greatly surprised by the appointment of a negro to an office where some 200 white men and women will be under his orders.

TELL OF JAPANESE SUCCESS

Detailed Report of Operations at Right Army.

TOKIO, arch 14.—Army headquarters today published a detailed report of the operations of the Japanese right army against Fushun from February 19, beginning with the preliminary operations preceding the capture of Tsinkhetchen and ending with the capture of the heights north of Fushun.

The defending Russians consisted of the Sixth East Siberian rifle division, the Seventy-first Reserve Infantry division, the Sixth and Seventh Regiments of the Second division, the Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Regiments of the Third division, the One Hundred and Forty-sixth Regiment of the Thirty-seventh division, the Eighty-fifth Regiment of the Twenty-second division and Lieutenant-General Rennenkampff's cavalry.

The report estimates the Russian losses to have been over 20,000, as against 3,800 lost by the Japanese.

The Russians firmly contested Tsinkhetchen, and they were favored by a snowstorm, the breaking of the ice in the river, the steepness of the country and their defenses.

Da Pass was captured without serious resistance, the Russians falling back to the Manchuntan Tieta line, where they blocked the Japanese for nine days. While holding this line the Russians received heavy reinforcements.

The Japanese on advancing to attack Fushun reached the Hun river March 10, and found that the ice in the middle of the river had melted. This interfered with the operations and delayed the attack. Finally, with great difficulty and in the face of much danger, a crossing of the river was effected, and the Japanese drove the Russians from their works on the northern heights.

After the loss of Da Pass the retiring Russians burned all the villages, thus depriving the Japanese of shelter during bitterly cold weather.

DRUG CLERK ACCUSED.

Arthur Lowe, formerly a drug clerk employed at Bowman's pharmacy, was this morning sentenced to four months' penal servitude by Police Judge Smith on a charge of petty larceny. Lowe pleaded guilty to having robbed F. A. Wright, proprietor of the Brunswick Hotel, and R. A. Leet, who is employed by the Bowman Company. The articles he took were valued in the aggregate at $25.

The defendant made no excuse for his acts and was given nearly the limit by Judge Smith. The goods taken were personal effects belonging to the two complaining witnesses.

KIDNAPPING IS CHARGED

ALLEGE THAT HE WAS TO STEAL BOYS TO MAKE THEM JOCKEYS.

Three days have already been consumed by the trial of John McMeekin, of Berkeley, accused of kidnapping, and the end is not yet in sight.

The case is being tried before Judge Quinn in the Justice's Court, and today the witnesses for the defense were examined, Judge Yule is conducting the defense, while the prosecution is represented by W. H. L. Hynes, deputy district attorney.

The case in brief is this: John McMeekin, who conducts a cigar store at 1900 Shattuck avenue, Berkeley, is accused of having kidnapped and taken two boys, Morris Lentz and Victor Wise, to San Jose. The charge was made by the parents of the former of the two boys, who are about twelve years of age.

The boys, on their own statement, have been in the habit of going to the defendant cigar store and shaking dice. On February 27, McMeekin drove to San Jose, as he claims, upon business, and took the boys with him. They went willingly and McMeekin asserts he took them along for company.

The parents, however, believe that he intended keeping them in San Jose, hidden, until he could take them East and start them on a career as jockeys on the race tracks, collecting half the profits accruing thereby.

The boys are bright and intelligent. They say that McMeekin told them to stay in San Jose, and if they could not get work to go out on a ranch, and that as soon as he could sell his cigar store, he would take them to Chicago. McMeekin denies any such statement or intention.

Various witnesses have been examined, the prosecution requiring two days' time in which to complete its case. The defense was commenced today, and will probably continue until tomorrow and possibly longer. The case was continued until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF N. H. SPIER.

GIRLS COULD NOT GO WITHOUT CHAPERONES.

Not the Proper Thing to Go to Sacramento to Produce Play Says Mrs. Wheeler.

BERKELEY, March 14.—The women students of the University decided this morning to give up the proposed trip to Sacramento in deference to the wishes of Mrs. Wheeler, wife of the president of the University. The matter was thoroughly discussed at a meeting attended by prominent women students, as well as faculty members, held this morning in North hall, and action was taken which does away with the proposed trip.

The Prytanean Society was to have produced "The Mikado" at Sacramento on March 21, and all the arrangements for the production had been made by Mervyn Samuels, business manager for the society.

Last Saturday Mrs. Wheeler suggested that it was not proper for the women students to travel so far from the University, and her objections have had sufficient weight to cause the abandonment of the enterprise.

Mayor Olney Receives Perfumed Note From "Six Business Girls"

Deny They Are "Scorchers"

Mayor Warren Olney this morning received a daintily perfumed note which was incidentally addressed to the members of the City Council, protesting against the passage of the ordinance prohibiting riding on the sidewalks with bicycles.

When the Mayor looked for the signature he expected to find the name of some feminine creature but he only saw the cold type-written words "From six business girls."

If the young ladies who hide behind that signature persist in their efforts to prevent the bicycle ordinance going into effect it is pretty safe to conjecture that they will win.

There are just enough unmarried members of the Council to have the ordinance shelved.

If a lobby of women athletes, whose special pastime is riding the cycle, call on the Councilmen who are matrimonial eligibles, it looks an even proposition that there will be no new ordinance against bicycles.

The objection is raised by the fair athletes are that the present administration has not made good streets. It is also urged that the rainy weather makes the streets impassable owing to ruts and other things. It is further recited that the streets after being sprinkled are hard to ride on.

"We are business girls," the note concludes, "And while the streets are in such poor condition, we think that the Council should assist us to the extent of permitting us to ride to and from the places where we work."

The young ladies deny that they are "scorchers" and only wish to use the sidewalks for a legitimate purpose.

Comes in Hotel's Dining Without His Suspenders

NEW YORK, March 14.—It has just become known that Ysaye, the distinguished Belgian violinist, recently undertook to introduce a new style in breakfast attire for the guests of the Victoria Hotel in this city. Other breakfast guests gasped when the wizard of the violin appeared.

His feet were incased in white stockings and red carpet slippers; his trousers, unsupported by suspenders, hung limply about him. His coat was an aged, wrinkled smoking jacket of black velvet. He wore no waistcoat, and from the end of the bosom of his shirt protruded an old-fashioned flap. On his shock of hair rested a German smoking cap with long tassels, and in his mouth was a long-stemmed, deep-bowled porcelain pipe.

The head waiter called the interpreter, who told Ysaye that smoking was not allowed.

"Tell them the quicker I get something to eat the sooner I'll stop smoking," was Ysaye's response, and he puffed away calmly.

As a rule Ysaye eats in his room, and the hotel management hopes he will continue to do so. Ysaye will take $40,000 of American money back to Europe, as his concerts have been very successful. It is said at the hotel that he exacts more attention than any other guest and never has been known to give a single tip.

KINIRY CASE

to pull his pistol and it dropped out of his pocket. He kept on going with Goldstein, but after they had taken a few steps Goldstein told him he could go no further and Kiniry laid him on the lawn and took his pistol and went to his home and changed his clothes and made his escape."

TWO PISTOLS.

Captain J. H. Bradish of the Los Angeles police department was called and testified to a conversation he had had with the prisoner and also to one he had listened to between the prisoner and Chief of Police Hodgkins. The most important point of his evidence beside that already testified to by Flammer, was that Kiniry told him that he took a 38-caliber pistol from Goldstein and left a 32-caliber pistol with him.

It is in the story of the exchange of pistols that District Attorney Allen hopes to bring home the crime of shooting Smith to Kiniry. Kiniry has told about a 32-caliber pistol and there was no such weapon found.

THEORY OF POLICE.

The theory of the police is that in reading some account of the affair in the newspapers Kiniry thought that the pistol found near Goldstein was a 32-caliber pistol and in making up a story for his defense said that his pistol that he dropped was a 32-caliber one, in order to make it agree with what he had read, while in fact he never dropped his pistol at all.

HARD FACT.

Ex-Judge Frick, in his cross-examination of Bradish, laid particular stress upon this point and asked minute questions as to just what was said. It is one of the hardest facts of the circumstantial evidence pointing to Kiniry as the real murderer of Smith, that he has to combat beside the fact that Smith himself said that the man he shot was not the one who shot him. In the darkness and the hurry of flight even this statement might be successfully attacked, but it is argued that Kiniry certainly knew the size of the pistol that he dropped.

STEALS MECHANIC'S TOOLS.

Peter Schmidt of 513 Ninth street, reported to the police this morning that all of his tools which he was using on a cottage in the course of erection on Forty-seventh street, were stolen last night.

DID HE TAKE HIS LIFE?

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF A YOUNG MAN DOWN SOUTH.

PASADENA, March 14.—A search of forty-eight hours has failed to reveal the whereabouts of George C. Merrill, 20 years old, who disappeared from his father's home at 730 East Villa street, under mysterious circumstances. Early yesterday morning while the rest of the family was asleep, he got up and left the house, first taking everything out of his pockets that might lead to his identity and depositing them on a table in his room. Even a handkerchief which had his initials in one corner, was left with his watch and pocketbook. An old 38-caliber revolver, which had been kept hidden in a cupboard in the kitchen, is missing.

The only motive that can be assigned for Merrill's queer actions is that for the past few weeks he has been out of work, while his parents are in need. Last December he returned from San Francisco, where, for eight months, he worked for the Sterrett Lithographing Company. He gave up his position because he became homesick and wanted to be near his invalid father. Since that time he has been working for the McBride Printing Company, in Los Angeles, but because work was slack lost his position a few weeks ago.

So far not the slightest trace has been found of the youth, and it is feared he may have committed suicide. A search has been started by friends of the family, who hope to secure some trace of the missing youth.

PRETTY PLAY AT YE LIBERTY

"JUANITA OF SAN JUAN" IS ATTRACTING CROWDED HOUSES.

With a stage setting of early California life "Juanita of San Juan," the bill for this week at the Liberty, attracted a large crowd at its first performance last evening. The play is written by Richard Tully, a former student at the University of California, who has made a reputation throughout the East as a playwright. Special attention has been paid to the scenic effects, and it must be said thatth e production is perfectly mounted. The characters in the play are sustained by Bishop's best players, and "Juanita of San Juan" will no doubt draw crowded houses throughout the week.

Great Meeting Will Be Held Tomorrow==Many Stores Have Agreed to Close.

The Preachers' Blue Monday proved to be a day full of anything but the blues, for the services of the day in all the districts were large and enthusiastic. There were great crowds out, especially in the evening. The service for young people at the First Presbyterian Church was one of the best meetings thus far in the campaign. The auditorium in the church was completely filled and the audience was largely composed of young people. Mr. Ostrom was quite happy in his presentation of the topic, "What Do I Live For?" He asked them if they lived for what they got to eat, for what they wore or for the pleasure they found in life, and stated that none of these things were worth existing for. His appeal to them to take into consideration the higher and nobler things of life to live for God, for Truth and Right was most effective and resulted in a large number making their decision for Christ. There were so many inquiries that the meeting continued until a late hour.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

At the First Congregational Church Dr. Chapman spoke on the subject, "The Unpardonable Sin." In his dealing with this subject he read the Scripture showing that blasphemy against God and Christ could be forgiven, but against the Holy Ghost there is not forgiveness.

The audience was a large one. The choir and the audience sang the now famous "Glory Song." It was repeated again and again each time with increasing vigor and earnestness, until the audience was thrilled with the sweetness of this wonderful song, the chorus of which is:

"O, that will be glory for me,"
Glory for me, glory for me,
When by his grace,
I shall look on his face,
That will be glory, be glory for me."

This famous song is now being sung everywhere in London, as a result of the great evangelistic work now being carried on in that city under the direction of Torrey and Alexander, the world famous evangelist and singer.

WEST OAKLAND.

The West Oakland workers have decided they can do a greater work for the people of their section of the city by removing the place of their meetings from the Chester street Methodist Church to Alcatraz Hall, commencing with the Wednesday evening service.

The pastors of West Oakland are solicitating the stores to close on Wednesday from 11:30 to 2 p. m., and are meeting with almost unanimous consent. There will be a meeting at noon at Alcatraz Hall, on account of the Day of Prayer. Besides this there will be the meetings in the railroad shops as usual.

At the Chester Street Church last evening the attendance was unusually large and the interest was deeper, especially among the men. All listened reverently to the reading of the thirtieth chapter of Isaiah. Mr. Rykert played his own accompaniment and sang with taking effect. Dr. Elliott took as his text the invitation of Jesus, "Come unto me," which he said was addressed to the laboring classes. There is a bitterness which comes into the homes of most laboring men who are not Christians. Those who say they are godless because they were brought up too strictly by Christian parents, lie and they know it. The Cotter's Saturday Night is an example of toil made sweet by sharing it with the Burden-bearer. Dr. Elliott drew a very impressive contrast between the palatial home of a Christless family on Fifth avenue, and the little shack of a devoted Christian family on the prairies of Minnesota. The favorite word of invitation in the Bible is "Come." A choir was rehearsing early one evening in a church. A man passed by on his way home from work. Being a German, he was fond of music, and stopped to listen. He could hear the melody, but could not hear the words. A portion of the chorus was the repetition of the word come. When he heard that, he turned away disgusted. He told his wife he always thought they were a set of fools at the Moody meetings, but now he knew it. He had heard them singing nothing but the words come, come, come, to a beautiful melody. After supper he went to the poor man's "club house," the saloon, but could not get away from the refrain, "Come, come." He went home and went to bed, but still it followed him and drove away his sleep, until finally he got on his knees and said, "Yes, Lord, I will come."

To whom are we to come? Not to a theory or creed, but to "me." To what are we to come? To rest—rest from sin and the peace of service. How are we to come? Not by a long pilgrimage, but by saying, "Lamb of God, I come." The invitation was extended to the audience and many rose to indicate their acceptance.

CHANGE OF MEETING PLACE.

Beginning with Wednesday evening, March 15, there will be meetings every evening at Alcatraz Hall on Peralta street, near Seventh, instead of the Chester Street Church. Dr. Elliott, contrary to his rule, has consented to hold a meeting Saturday evening. Meetings close Sunday.

THE STORES CLOSE.

There is such unanimous consent on behalf of the merchants who have been requested to close their places of business that it is likely every store will be closed on Wednesday from 11:30 to 2 p. m. Cards reading, "This store will be closed Wednesday, March 15, from 11:30 to 2, on account of the Day of Prayer," are being circulated.

J. Wilbur Chapman will speak in the Macdonough theater, and Henry Ostrom in the Bell theater at 12 o'clock. There will be an overflow meeting at the Novelty theater, and as this exhausts the theaters tendered free to the committee, the churches will be next used for services.

The following places of business have agreed to close on Wednesday, March 15, between the hours of 11:30 a. m and 2 p. m.:

H. C. Capwell Co., Kahn Bros., Taft & Pennoyer, Smith Bros., R. H. Chamberlain, Hook Bros. & Co., W. N. Jenkins, H. L. Kemp, Cheviot Clothing Co., The Oakland Shoe House, Jackson Furniture Co., C. W. BIBLE CONFERENCE.

From ten to twelve today there was a Bible conference held at the First Presbyterian Church under the direction of J. Wilbur Chapman and his assistants. There was a good attendance of pastors and workers, and great interest was manifested in this important work.

At the afternoon conference of personal workers in the First Methodist Church Rev. J. H. Thompson conducted the service. At 3 p. m. Dr. Chapman delivered the address and at 4 p. m. Henry Ostrom spoke before the pastors' conference. There was great enthusiasm manifested in all these services over the work of evangelism, and great good will result therefrom.

H. W. STOUGH.

At the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist Church last night, Evangelist H. W. Stough spoke on, "Why a Moral Life Will Not Save."

He said in part:

"It is inconceivable that God would be so unjust as to discriminate in favor of the moral individual, whose morality cannot but depend upon heredity and environment, two factors over which the individual has no control. To affirm that morality saves is to believe that God discriminates against the slum child, whose birth and home have been against its knowing, let alone living a moral life. God is no respector of persons, and will not judge men by two standards. If we could conceive of such discrimination upon the part of a just God, judging from our own instincts, the unfortunate man would stand a far better chance because of his misfortune. The fact of the case is that there is none righteous, no, not one. We have all sinned and come short of His glory. Some to be sure have come farther short than others. But all need some divine help.

"Salvation is God's merciful provision for the shortcomings of men. In Jesus Christ God provided a standard and a principle by which men might get right with God.

"Men boast that if they do the square thing by their fellow men and their families, that somhow or other God will at last strike a balance, which they hope will be in their favor. But the first commandment is to love God, the second, love thy neighbor. A man was arrested and sent to the penitentiary for escaping years before, who had in the meantime lived an upright life. He was right with his family, but not right with the State. You may be right with men, but, I ask you tonight, are you right with God?

"To eliminate God from your life is to break the first and greatest commandment, which is the first and greatest sin."

DR. WALTON.

Dr. Walton's subject last night was the oft recurring expression in the book of Ecclesiastics, "Under the sun," but he also used the text from the New Testament, 1st John, 2:17, "The world passeth away." The sermon in full follows:

"No man would better be able to understand all that happens under the sun than the writer of Ecclesiastics. Endowed by God with special wisdom; king over the greatest nation of his time; at peace with the world; under the special providence of Almighty God; a type of the king of peace. Solomon tells us of the emptiness of the things that happen under the sun. The question of profit and loss is an everyday affair; every street car that goes to the heart of the city bears a multitude of business men, and if one could see their eyes as they sketch the newspapers it would be found that very few are thinking of what they are reading, but the question after all is, "does it pay," "What is the profit?" "What the probable loss?" Every soul looks for permanent good.

In this world the conditions change; everything is transitory, unsatisfactory, and there is a longing in the human soul for rest, for permanence. The only question, however, that we need to ask today is "What has the world to offer?" "What is worth while?"

"Of all that is under the sun, what is worth the living?" Wealth, would be the answer of the great multitude. But is it true? To Solomon, whose income must have been something like twenty millions per year in our money, and to whom gold was as dirt, having 40,000 stable horses and 12,000 on his staff, holding the reins of power in prestige to his father.

WHAT IS WORTH WHILE.

With every possibility for comfort and enjoyment of this life he sums it all up for us in a few feeling direct statements and with how much force they come because he knew whereof he was speaking: "I said in mine heart, go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure; and, behold, this also is vanity. I said of laughter, it is mad; and of mirth, what doeth it? I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom, and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what good for the sons of men they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards; I made me gardens and I planted trees in them. I made me pools of water to water the wood. I got me servants and maidens and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions above all that were in Jerusalem before me. I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men. So I was great and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor; and this was my portion from all my labor."

STORM IN SOUTH DOES HALF MILLION DAMAGE.

Only One Life Reported Lost—Streets of Los Angeles Are Running RiverS.

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—Today dawned clear and cool in Los Angeles and it is apparent that the great storm that has raged almost incessantly along the Southern coast for the past forty-eight hours is over.

It has been the most disastrous storm experienced in this region in a decade.

As far as has been learned, but one life has been lost as a result of the storm, that of a laborer, who was drowned in the flood waters along the Santa Fe Railroad, near Cajon Pass.

HALF MILLION DAMAGE.

The total damage, scattered over a wide stretch of territory, is conservatively estimated at an amount in excess of half a million dollars. This includes the damage to streets, buildings, bridges and other property in this city, the loss to the steam and electric railroads and the damage to wharves, piers and shipping all along the coast.

The total fall of rain for the storm measures 3.52 inches, according to the Government rain gauge, but at other points in the storm belt this amount was greatly exceeded, reaching in some places as high as 5.40 inches.

The storm was accompanied by most unusual phenomena in the shape of a strong southeastern gale of wind, continuous rolls of heavy thunder, flashes of lightning and occasional showers of hail.

The wind, which at times attained a velocity of thirty-six miles an hour, wreaked immense damage all along the coast. Telegraph and telephone lines were blown to the ground in many places and for hours Los Angeles was practically isolated from the outside world.

With the exception of one telegraph wire to Chicago, which was in operation only at intervals, all communication with that section was cut off.

Until today Los Angeles has not been able to reach San Francisco since early Sunday morning.

DAMAGE BY FLOOD.

The storm of wind and flood in this city was most disastrous. The damage from the flood waters to the city's streets alone is estimated by the superintendent of streets to be more than $50,000. Pavement and curbstones have been torn up and washed away, sewers and storm drains broken and miles of streets covered with thick slime of sand, gravel and greasy petroleum washed down from the oil region above the city.

The worst disaster occurring in the city as a result of the ravages of the storm was the washing out of the Seventh street bridge across the Los Angeles river, where fourteen people were carried down into the flooded stream and five of them, including one woman, seriously hurt. It was at first reported that two men had lost their lives in the catastrophe, but this has not been confirmed.

At least one spectator to the disaster asserted that he saw two bodies floating off on the surface of the wreck-filled waters, but so far no one has been reported missing. The fall of the bridge was caused by the wearing of the waters at the base of the abutments, which finally undermined the sandy supports of the structure and caused its collapse.

Other bridges across the river at various points were considered unsafe for traffic and were closed by the police. The river yesterday reached the highest point recorded here in thirteen years. Considerable damage was done along the low lying bottoms of its course, many families being driven from their habitations to higher ground, but, so far as has been reported, no lives were lost. The San Gabriel river, Mojave river and other streams were charged to their full capacity, but caused only minor damage.

STREETS ARE RIVERS.

In the city proper the flood waters, from the surrounding hills filled the sewers and storm drains to overflowing and converted many of the principal thoroughfares into raging torrents two feet deep in places. Many business houses and dwellings in the lower parts of the city were flooded on the lower floors and considerable damage done. Street car traffic was tied up for hours and entirely suspended on several lines. The tracks in places were buried beneath a covering of mud and sand to the depth of more than a foot.

In some localities the tracks were entirely washed out. The interurban and suburban lines also suffered heavily and several of them were put out of operation.

RAILROAD WASHOUTS.

Both the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads were victims of extensive washouts that tied up all traffic in both directions for more than thirty-six hours. The Southern Pacific Coast Line to San Francisco was washed out in three or four places in long stretches and at least one large trestle carried out. Saturday's Southbound trains have not yet arrived here but it is expected that the line will be temporarily repaired today and traffic resumed.

The Southern Pacific line to the east has remained undamaged and trains, though proceeding slowly, have been kept moving in both directions. The Santa Fe was washed out between San Bernardino and Barstow in half a dozen places in stretches half a mile in length. The worst damage suffered was at Cajon Pass, where a landslide occurred that buried the roadbed beneath tons of earth from the mountain side. The Santa Fe signalled its eastbound trains last night and held all westbound trains at Barstow, pending the repairs to the roadbed.

At the various sea coast towns the damage from wind and waves will foot up in the neighborhood of $300,000. Piers were wrecked, wharves torn to pieces, scores of small craft driven ashore and broken up and many buildings along the coast battered and badly damaged. Santa Monica appears to have been the worst sufferer. Here the loss is estimated at $200,000. Two piers were smashed, one wharf ruined and extensive beach improvements in course of construction pounded to pieces.

Wreckage is strewn along the coast for a mile and a half. At Long Beach several boats were pulled from their moorings, driven ashore and completely wrecked. The new pier, built of steel and concrete, was also damaged. The loss at this port is estimated at $20,000.

At San Pedro the government breakwater, in course of construction, was damaged to the extent of $12,000 and other minor losses as a result of the storm occurred on shore. The wireless telegraph station at this point was blown down and damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. At Playa del Rey another pleasure pier was destroyed. Other resorts also sustained loss.

The towns in the interior suffered but little, according to reports that have been received. In this city lightning struck the steeple of the Boyle Height's Methodist Church, damaging the building about $3,000.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF FOUR MEN IN FIERCE STORM.

Two Are Injured in Thrilling Battle With Death on Water.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Four San Franciscans who for hours had fought with death in a storm off the treacherous Mendocino coast and who had been given up for lost by relatives and friends, returned home this morning thankful that they are still alive. The four men were Emil Schneider and Charles A. Stowell of the United States Marine Hospital Service; Paul E. Squire, a druggist, employed at the Leipnitz drug store, and Julius Berges of the wholesale liquor firm of Bergez & Domenicon. Sharing the same peril were the captains and crews of the tugs Henrietta and U. S. Grant of the Paladini fishing fleet.

During the thrilling experience two men were injured. Schneider, who took a turn at the wheel on the Henrietta, was hurled against the pilothouse by a huge wave and sustained painful bruises and a broken rib and the fireman of the Grant had an arm broken. The Grant had a mast snapped off in the gale, tangled gearing caught in her propeller, and she now lies in Drake's Bay awaiting repairs. The Henrietta was uninjured.

The party of four who went out to the fishing banks for a good time were away about fifty-three hours. When they got ashore yesterday they tried to communicate with their friends in this city, but the wires were down and it was not known whether they were dead or alive until they got back this morning

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Emil Schneider, who pluckily went back to his work in the branch of the Marine Hospital in the Appraiser's building after he had communicated with his relatives, tells a dramatic story of the trip Here is his narrative, told in the way of a man who can face a crisis without losing his nerve

"We started out Sunday morning at 4 o'clock on the fishing tug Henrietta. The weather was fine, and we stayed on deck enjoying ourselves until we reached the fishing banks twenty miles north of Point Reyes. At 7 30 o'clock in the morning, after the nets were out, the storm came up Soon it grew so fierce that the boss fisherman ordered that the nets be pulled up. For a while it was feared that they would have to be cut loose, but we persevered and finally got them in. It was a tough job. The haul of fish was a good one, but something else demanded our attention just then. The waves were running as high as the Spreckels' Building. We tried to keep in deep water, but it was too rough. Then we made for Drake's Bay. Between wind and wave we were in a bad way. I thought it was all off with us. Even the captain had no hope. I helped out at the wheel. A big wave hurled me against the pilothouse and gave me a busted rib.

MAST BROKEN.

"When we got to the bar it was breaking low and was worse than the sea. Captain Nelson wanted to make for deep water again, but the boss fisherman insisted on keeping the tug headed for the bay. Behind was the fishing tug U. S. Grant which trolls with the Henrietta. The Grant was struck by a heavy sea that snapped her stern mast, cleaned her decks, swept away the life boats filled her engine rooms with water and put out the fires. The gearing got tangled in the propeller and the tug was helpless Some time during this trouble the fireman of the Grant got his arm broken.

"We stood by the Grant. She drifted along, and after much difficulty both tugs got across the bar and into Drake's bay. It was two o'clock Sunday afternoon when we got there. It was too rough to launch one of our boats, and there we lay all night and until yesterday afternoon Then four of us, drenched and weary, got ashore in a skiff. When we got to the lighthouse the register showed that the wind which we were up against blew at least a hundred miles an hour. That was the limit of the register. I was told that the wind was stronger but just how much nobody knew. When we tried to communicate with our friends and relatives there was much trouble. The wires were down

WALKED MILES TO REFUGE.

"To go back with my story a bit, we had a fine walk after we got ashore. I am told that we walked six miles, but it seemed more like sixty miles. We got to the Geary ranch, and the people there treated us like white men, giving us not only food, but dry clothing Then they put us in a wagon and took us thirty-five miles to Point Reyes After a few hours' rest we got aboard the morning train, and now I can truthfully say that I'm glad I'm here.

"The crew of the Henrietta included Captain Nelson, Chief Engineer H Meenan, an assistant engineer and five fishermen. Captain Nelson did great work. He was on deck all the time He says that he never saw a storm like it, and he couldn't understand how we managed to live through it As for the Grant, he said, her survival was a mystery."

TOSSED LIKE CORK.

Paul E. Squire went around the Horn on the Oregon and was in service on that ship during the fight at Santiago, but he will forget those things before he will cease to remember his trip to the fishing banks. "The waves were mountains high," he said this morning. "I didn't realize the danger, but the captain and others did. I was so sick that I didn't care what happened. No storm ever made me sick before. I used to boast that I couldn't get seasick, but that experience Sunday was too much for me. We were tossed around like cork. The Grant was worse off than our tug. Her mast went overboard her boats were swept away and her fires were put out It was thought that the Grant would have to be beached, but after her crew got the water out it was found that she wasn't leaking. It was a great experience, but one trip of that kind is enough for me."

THUGS HAVE CHECKS

Murderers Afraid to Cash Paper for $1,600.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—If John Brashland, the retired cavalry sergeant who met his death in this city on December 10 last, was really the victim of knockout drops, the conspirators who hold his pay checks for $1,600 will experience considerable difficulty in getting their money So far the checks have never been offered for collection, the murderers, no doubt, believing that an early presentation might arouse suspicion and call for an explanation they were not prepared to give Now they will never be paid unless the party or parties holding them can prove to the satisfaction of the army paymaster that they are entitled to the money.

After the publication of the story outlining the views of Brashland's former captain, who firmly believes that his old sergeant was a victim of foul play, Captain of Detectives Burnett again took up the investigation of the case, which has been allowed to slumber since the Coroner completed his investigation All of the old police reports were gone over, the Coroner's records were looked up, and the detectives who had been engaged in the former investigation were closely questioned by their chief The result was that additional men were put to work to unravel the mystery, and this morning Captain of Detectives Burnett has their reports in hand

Detective Ryan visited the office of the army paymaster yesterday afternoon and learned that none of the Brashland checks had ever been presented for collection at the Sub-Treasury He was advised by the paymaster that in the event of any of them being offered they would be held until the party offering them could establish his right to their possession.

Detective Cody went over the ground covered by upper office men during the former investigation. He found that Brashland had intrusted two checks, one for $1 000 and one for $600, to Oswald Weinbold, a saloon-keeper at Lyon and Lombard streets, a few days before his death. On these checks he had secured advances of $600, and had then called for them, giving Weinbold a receipt for the securities He promised Weinbold that he would come back the next day, go to the Sub-Treasury with him and pay him the cash advanced, but Weinbold declares that he never came back, and that he never saw him again.

Captain Burnett said this morning that the department would do everything possible to get to the bottom of the mystery, but he has little hopes of a solution until the checks are offered for collection at the Sub-Treasury So long a time has elapsed since the death of Brashland that the detectives are greatly handicapped in their efforts to locate the criminals, if criminals there be, but if the checks are in the hands of the men responsible for Brashland's death the police believe they will be put in circulation before long, and this may lead to the capture of the guilty parties.

GRADY ATTACKS HEARST

Says That the Editor Has Joined Hands With Odell.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 14.—The agitation in New York City for a lower gas rate, together with allegations against the gas companies of extortionate rates and of maintaining false meters, resulted today in the adoption by the Senate of a joint resolution providing for a joint investigation of the New York gas and electric lighting situation.

The resolution was not passed, however, until after a long and rather acrimonious debate in which Senator Grady of New York, the Democratic leader and principal representative of Tammany Hall in the upper branch of the general assembly, took a conspicuous part Senator Grady led the opposition to the resolution, charging that its motive was purely partisan and directing a particularly bitter attack against William R. Hearst, who, he said, had joined hands with Republican State Chairman Odell to accomplish his purposes.

SENTENCE STANDS

Army Officer Will Have to Serve Time on Alcatraz.

WASHINGTON, March 14—The President has approved the sentence in the case of Lieut. Francis M. Boone, Nineteenth Infantry, who was tried and convicted by courtmartial at Vancouver Barracks on the charge of desertion, absence without leave, breach of arrest and non-payment of debts.

The sentence of the court was dismissal and two years' imprisonment, but the President, upon recommendation of the War Department, reduced the terms of imprisonment to one year.

Alcatraz Island, California, is designated as the place of confinement.

FIRE ON WHARF ON BROADWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—A fire in the wooden building on the Broadway wharf, used by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company for their ticket office and storerooms, did $3000 damage this morning

Flames were seen in the upper story, which is used as a sail loft, at 6:30 this morning by workmen on a coal barge tied up at the adjoining dock.

In response to an alarm the fire-boat Governor Markham, as well as the engines of the department, promptly appeared on the scene The blowing out of the pump cylinder-head on the Markham caused some delay, but the blaze was extinguished while it was still confined to the second story

The building, which is part of the State water front property, is damaged to the extent of $3000 It is fully insured by a blanket policy, which carries $550,000 on the State's entire harbor property, and is distributed among twenty or more companies

The damage suffered by the steamship company is confined to the loss of stores of life preserves and marine stores and the inconvenience to which they are put.

The cause of the fire is said to have been defective wiring.

FUNERAL OF MRS. FRIEND

The funeral of the late Mrs. William H. Friend took place this afternoon from the chapel of the First Presbyterian church, the services being conducted by the Rev. E. E. Baker, assisted by Dr. J. K. McLean.

The pall bearers were W. W. Haskell, T. L Barker, Geo. H. Collins, C. A. Kiose, J. W. Pew and Geo. D. Gray.

Mrs Friend was one of the oldest members of the Ebell Club, and a large and representative gathering of Oakland people attended the funeral.

MAY GO TO JAIL ON PATRICK'S DAY

Max B. Goldman, a tailor, has failed to comply with an order made by Judge Melvin ordering him to pay Pauline J. Goldman $20 a month alimony, and she sued out a citation today ordering him to appear in court on March 17 and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court for failing to pay the money. It is alleged that he is regularly employed at his work and that there is no reason known to the plaintiff why he should not pay it.

Seven Years in San Quentin Prison For Rev. Isaac Selby.

Judge Lawlor Declares Minister Was Sane When He Shot at Judge Hebbard.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Rev. Isaac Selby, whose bullet missed Judge Hebbard's brain by a fraction of an inch, received his deserts this morning from Superior Judge Lawlor, who sentenced him to spend seven years in San Quentin.

Palpably nervous, but striving hard to appear calm and collected, Selby arose this morning when he was asked whether he had any reason why sentence should not be passed on him, and said:

"Your Honor, I move for a new trial on the ground that I have new evidence to submit which I could not have obtained at my previous trial. Also because I was denied my legal right to defend myself and to testify on the stand in person. The witnesses whom I wished to testify were not called and many were called whom I did not wish to testify. Besides these points testimony was introduced which was based chiefly on opinion, and if I had had my way my trial would have been conducted purely on a basis of fact. I wished to defend the purity of my home and family and I did not shoot at Judge Hebbard. I had another purpose in view. On all these grounds, both sentimental and legal, I move for a new trial."

Judge Lawlor promptly denied the motion, saying:

"The court has no doubt regarding the sanity of the defendant and this view is substantiated by the verdict brought in by the jury. It is the belief of the Court that the mind of the defendant is disordered and that he has an inordinate idea of his own importance, and if this estimate is not granted by the public he at once becomes disgruntled. This statement does not necessarily mean that the defendant is insane, but that he merely has a disordered mind. Also the divorced wife of the defendant is of such a kindly and affectionate nature that I believe she would have stuck to him and not have been divorced if she had not thought he was criminal rather than mentally unsound.

"Also, the defendant's statements this morning in court are so clear and lucid that it alone would almost prove him to be sane. On these grounds I sentence the defendant to spend seven years in the State prison at San Quentin."

The murderous attack made on Judge Hebbard was committed in Department No. 4 of the Superior Court on November 26. Selby walked into the courtroom while the Judge was on the bench and when about twenty feet away from Hebbard deliberately pulled out his pistol and shot at him. The bullet passed within a fraction of an inch of the Judge's head, who immediately leaped from the bench and tackled his assailant. With the help of officers and attorneys in the room Selby, who for the time was endowed with the strength of a maniac, was subdued and taken away to the prison. When seen there he called Hebbard a "moral assassin" and blamed him for the ruin of his family. All the trouble was caused by Selby objecting to a divorce which was granted by Judge Hebbard to Selby's wife.

PRES. CASTRO IS A DISTURBER

PARIS, March 14.—The Foreign Office here has not been advised of the action of President Castro toward the French Cable Company, but declare that France will act energetically should the information prove correct.

President Castro's attitude with reference to the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company is regarded by the Foreign Office as a pretext to gain time, and it is added that sooner or later the Venezuelan President will seize an opportunity to create serious trouble between the United States and Venezuela.

WILL POSTPONE ISSUE OF LOAN

PARIS, March 14.—Inquiry today at three banks principally interested in the new Russian loan brought the response that it had been decided to postpone the issue. A representative of one of the banks said the postponement was for such an indefinite period that it was unlikely the issue could occur for some time to come. The postponement was attributed to the uncertainties of the war situation

HE BOLDLY STOLE A CORNET

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—It is alleged the William Powers walked boldly into the Mission Theater last Sunday night and picked up the cornet of one of the musicians and walked out with it.

This morning he was arrested by Detectives Graham and Harrison at his home at Mission and Twenty-second streets and brought to the police station, where he was placed on the detinue book pending further investigation, but before the day is over he will likely be booked on the charge of grand larceny, as A. Schildkert, the owner of the cornet claims that its value is $100. The stolen property was recovered by the sleuths in a pawnshop yesterday and returned to its owner.

FATHER RAMM WILL PREACH

On Wednesday evening at 7.30 the Rev. Charles A. Ramm of St. Mary's Cathedral, and formerly Recorder in the University of California, will deliver the sermon in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Father Ramm is considered one of the ablest and most pleasing pulpit orators today in California.

OSSINING, N. Y., March 14.—Albert T. Patrick, the condemned lawyer, who has been in Sing Sing prison for over two years under sentence of death for the murder of William Marsh Rice, was taken to Albany, where his application for a new trial is to be argued in the Court of Appeals.

KILLED BY JEALOUS HUSBAND

"I Have Done the Job," He Says After Murder.

GRASS VALLEY, March 14.—Shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon William Trebilcox shot and instantly killed his wife and dangerously wounded her cousin, young Charles Allen, at the outskirts of this city. No apparent cause is given for the crime. Trebilcox and his wife had been married eight years, but their life was unhappy. He came home, after an absence of some time, and was met at the front door by Allen, who has not yet reached his majority. He burst in ordered Allen out of the place and threatened to kill him. Allen jumped behind a door, drew a 22-caliber pistol, having caught sight of Trebilcox's weapon, and fired. The shot went wild and Trebilcox reached around the door and fired, sending a bullet through Allen's thigh. He then dashed through the door, and his wife fled out the rear door.

As she did so, the infuriated husband fired at close range, the bullet striking her in the back of the head. She fell dead in a pool of blood Allen then escaped and ran for a near-by saloon, Trebilcox firing two shots after him. Trebilcox then walked into town and delivered himself to Marshal Deeble, carrying his six-shooter in his hand and saying: "I have done the job." After a short stay in the city jail he was hurried to the County Jail at Nevada City, fears being entertained of lynching. On the way to the County Jail they had to pass the scene of the murder. A crowd gathered as he passed with the officers, but no demonstration was made.

Young Allen was badly wounded and is too weak to make a statement yet.

ENGINE DROPS THROUGH TRACK

SAN DIEGO, March 14.—The engine of the northbound passenger train on the Santa Fe, leaving San Diego at 8:30 a. m., dropped through the track at Encinitas and was delayed until nearly 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The southbound train due here at 12:40 was held two hours by the wreck. The settling of the roadbed, caused by the rails spreading, caused the accident

MAY HAVE TAKEN DOSE OF POISON

NEW YORK, March 14.—A man who registered at the Grand Union Hotel last night as Henry R. Reed and engaged a suite of three rooms, was found dead in bed to-day. A bottle containing a white powder was found in the room and the police are investigating on the theory that the man may have committed suicide. They are also looking for a young woman who was seen to leave the hotel with Reed last night.

The dead man who was sixty years of age, was senior member of the firm of Nasstes, Spalding & Co., owners of the Revere Sugar Refinery of Boston.

BURGLARS MAKE A SMALL HAUL

FRUITVALE, March 14.—Robbers entered the store of Herman Von Duren, at the corner of Redwood road and Fourteenth street, a little after 3 o'clock this morning, and succeeded in getting away with about $8 worth of merchandise. The noise of their operations aroused Mrs. Von Duren, who was sleeping in a cottage next door She saw one come out of the back door of the store, a medium-sized man wearing a long black coat. He escaped without being pursued Entrance was gained by boring a hole in the back door of the store. The lock was then picked. The constable has been notified

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

The Coroner's jury this afternoon arrived at the verdict that Peter McColgan came to his death by accidental drowning in the estuary off Fallon street.

McColgan conducted a saloon on Seventh street, and had been missing from his place of business for six or seven days prior to his death. The mystery was explained by the finding of his body in the estuary. For a time the theory of foul play was entertained by the police, but this has been dispelled by the decision of the Coroner's jury.

FISHERMEN TOSSED IN THE STORM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—The Weather Bureau observer at Point Reyes reports that two fishing vessels were badly damaged during the storm on Sunday. One of the fishermen had a rib broken Several small boats were lost.

FOUND NO SIGNS OF A DERELICT

VALLEJO, Cal., March 14.—The naval transport Solace arrived at Mare Island today from the north. She had been searching for a derelict, but found no signs of it.

After a survey of the New Orleans by the construction department it has been estimated that repairs will cost $238,000.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE
Tribune Publishing Company. William E. Dargie, President.

Oakland's New Mayor.

The people of Oakland testified to their confidence in Frank K. Mott by electing him Mayor by a plurality so large as to place beyond question the heartiness and enthusiasm of the popular choice. Mr. Mott should feel complimented at this manifestation of the esteem in which he is held by his fellow townsmen.

We believe also that the city of Oakland is to be congratulated. Mr. Mott will disappoint his friends and well-wishers, THE TRIBUNE among the number, if he does not make an excellent record in office. He has a splendid opportunity. All the departments of the city government are in sympathy with him, and the Council will back him solidly. His sincerity cannot be questioned. Under the circumstances he ought to give Oakland an effective and progressive administration.

Mr. Mott can be depended upon to give the affairs of the city his personal attention and his best thought. Being on the ground, and not a mere bird of passage through the City Hall, he will keep himself informed as to what is going on in the departments. He does not believe that any sort of government is good enough for Oakland.

It is fortunate that the new Mayor will have such an efficient and trustworthy party coadjutor in the Board of Public Works as City Engineer Turner. Nor will he be troubled by any factious obstruction on the part of City Atorney McElroy, who owes his reelection to the admirable record he has made as city official. So we can with good reason look for harmony and co-operation in the municipal boards. It is not too much to expect that the Street Department will be something more than a name during the next two years.

A Tokio dispatch says the news of Oyama's recent victory is received with quiet. No wonder, victory bleeds as well as defeat. Japan is filled with mourning, ever if the routed Russians are in full retreat. War claims its penalties from victors and vanquished alike.

An insane convict has escaped from the Napa Asylum. Such incidents are of frequent occurrence, and each one illustrates the miserable policy pursued by this State in dealing with its criminal insane The prison officials are only too glad to get rid of demented or partially demented convicts, and hence send them to the asylums where no adequate provision is made for their safe keeping. Two results follow Cunning convicts feign insanity in order to be sent to an asylum, where the opportunities for escape are much greater than in a prison. On the other hand, the asylum authorities are constantly returning to the prisons as cured insane convicts who have only temporary rational periods. An annex for insane convicts should have been built at one of the prisons years ago.

The Republican organization in Oakland has again become strong and disciplined. Yesterday's election demonstrated that the party can always win here if it will only keep up its organization and put forward good candidates. With one exception the entire ticket was elected by smashing majorities. The lone Democrat elected was an exceptionally strong candidate personally, and had the endorsement of the Municipal League and Union Labor parties. Even with all these advantages in his favor, A. P. Leach, running as a straight Republican candidate, ran less than 600 votes behind him. But for certain factional differences in the party Mr. Leach would have been elected along with the other nominees. At any rate he has the satisfaction of knowing that he made a gallant run and was beaten by the strongest man that could be trotted out against him. Mr. McElroy fully realizes that he was up against a good man.

The Sacramento Bee exalts its horn because it has enormously increased its circulation during the past two years. The Bee has two strong points in its favor. It is a high-class, independent journal, and it prints the news on the day it is received. In other words, it gets there first with the goods, just as THE TRIBUNE does in Oakland.

A dispatch says Mrs. Chadwick took her conviction hard. It was the reaction from taking money easy.

It is to be regretted that Dr. Myra Knox failed of re-election by a narrow plurality. Her defeat was not due to premeditation, but to forgetfulness for one thing and to the general strength of the Republican nominees for School Director at Large. No doubt there are hundreds of voters in the city who today are regretting that they neglected to cast a vote for Dr. Knox. It was a mistake not to have done so.

According to the Los Angeles Express the production of citrus fruits in Southern California last year reached 30,000 carloads, but it is ominous to learn that only 11,000 carloads had been shipped up to March 1st. There still remained on hand at that date, according to the figures of the Southern California Fruit Exchange, 11,000 carloads of navel oranges, 4,000 carloads of other varieties and 4,000 carloads of lemons. This would indicate that less than half the crop was marketed by a date when the bulk of it should have been disposed of. It looks as if the orange industry is slightly overdone in California.

Kearns and the Mormon Church.

The valedictory of Senator Thomas Kearns of Utah, in which he excoriated the Mormon hierachy, created something of a sensation throughout the country, but it does not appear to be thought much of by the Gentile element in Utah. Kearns did not express his hot indignation against the practices of the Mormon priesthood till he was "churched" out of the seat in the Senate, which Judge C. C. Goodwin, formerly editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, openly charges, was bought for him from the head of the Mormon church. In Goodwin's Weekly, Judge Goodwin caustically reviews Kearns' speech, giving the following history of the election of Kearns to the Senate:

"The Senator's declaration that the influence which made him Senator was unsought and unbought, that it came to him because of a friendship that arose between him and President Snow through events attendant upon Utah's struggle for Statehood, will be read with humiliation throughout Utah. It is most doubtful if during the days of that struggle, the two men were even acquainted, one was a priest in Brigham City, the other a miner in Parley's Park, and it is not probable that they ever met But the important part is the Senator's denial that he bought his seat. That statement was but a gauzy technicality. A great many seats in the United States Senate have perhaps been bought. We suspect that every Senator who has ever secured his seat by purchase could, just as truthfully, have held up his hands and said: 'Accuse me of buying my seat here? Search me!' As did Senator Kearns on Tuesday last. No considerable number of Gentiles wanted him Senator; not ten Mormons wanted him Senator, not one Mormon in ten knew that such a man as [illegible]d in Utah. Yet he obtained the place. Why?

"It has always been understood, often [illegible] been charged, and never before denied, that a certain stockholder [illegible] the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company, bonds [illegible] the Salt-air pavilion and railroad for a large sum of money, that as an evidence of good faith a heavy first payment was made, but there was a condition attached to that payment, and the condition was that at the critical moment enough Mormon Legislators should vote for Thomas Kearns to insure him the Senatorship; and the covenant was kept. The deal was made directly with the then president of the Mormon church. The transaction brought great shame and reproach upon both the church and President Snow; the statement of the facts was repeatedly publicly made through the press during the life-time of President Snow. Had it not been true does any one believe that the President and his counsellors would have rested under it in silence?"

Judge Goodwin further charges that Kearns knew Reed Smoot withdrew as a candidate for the Senate at the command of President Snow in order to give Kearns a clear field. He further says Kearns bought the Salt Lake Tribune and put it into the political copartnership between himself and the Mormon church. So it seems that Kearns' sudden accession of grace is due rather to disappointment and chagrin than to any genuine indignation against the system of theocracy that prevails in Utah. He only objected when he could no longer profit by it. There are many reformers like him.

JACK LONDON, MAYOR.

Jack London will be elected Mayor of Oakland.—Daily Paper.

Those who live in the town of Bohemia and bliss,
Of the juice of the grape, and the juicier kiss
Point across through the fog that envelopes the bay
And from Uncle George Bromley to Mizner they say
"Nothing doing. 'The City of Beautiful Homes'
And the long lemonade, but no amber that foams."
But the future, their comment sarcastic will lack
When London is Mayor, real, regal, our Jack.

For with London as Mayor, "The Call of the Wild"
Would go through the land to man, woman and child;
And they'd rush to the place, for the prophets are few
Who are honored by men in the town where they grew.
It would please the ambitious, who erstwhile were lost
(In the place of their birth, they were "Kids of the Frost")
And 'Frisco, poor 'Frisco, would go somewhat back
And be seated, Jack London, man, Mayor, our Jack.

Fair Oakland, "The City of Beautiful Homes,"
The municipal craft which crept into the domes
Of your citizens brave, who are overly wise,
Will show how it pays if you'll just advertise.
For all writers and poets will flock out to you
If you'll give them something or somebody to do;
For their king from the Mole to the Emeryville track
Will be London, Jack London, prince, pirate, our Jack.

TOD GOODWIN in Goodwin's Weekly.

ABOUT ST. PATRICK.

His baptismal name is said to have been Sucat.
Little is known of him.
He was born at Nemthur.
Nemthur, Scotland, is now Dumbarton.
He was born in 396 and died in 469.
His father was the deacon Calpurnius.
In 411 Patrick was captured by the Picts and sold into Ireland as a slave.
After six years he escaped this slavery and devoted himself to the conversion of Ireland.
Then he prepared for the priesthood, entering upon his mission about 425.
It was in the year 441 that he was consecrated a Bishop.
Of his writings there were his confessions and an epistle.
One prominent authority says that the only thing actually known of him is that he existed.
And not a word as to his greatest deed of effectually fixing matters so the sons of the Emerald Isle cannot see snakes!—Philadelphia Record.

Hints for the Ladies

Never apply a poultice to the inside of the canal of the ear.

Don't always be doing something; having intermittent attacks of idling. To understand how to relax is to understand how to strengthen nerves and to retain youth.

Well-cooked oatmeal with a raw apple is claimed to be an ideal diet for humanity and children can keep strong on this at the smallest possible outlay.

When fatigued two or three teaspoonfuls of tincture of lavender in a cupful of hot water, with a slice or two of lemon, are a splendid restorative and tonic for the nerves.

Cramp in the legs is frequently relieved by firmly pressing the feat against some hard substance, such as the end o fthe bed. In most cases pressure against a cold hearthstone will afford relief.

After washing the hands, before drying them pour over the backs equal parts of glycerine and water. Smear the mixture over the hands and then quickly dip into the water and dry them gently so as not to entirely wipe off the glycerine.

Don't let insomnia get the upper hand. By all means in your power try to break up the habit; sleeplessness is sometimes caused by unconscious hunger, and a cup of water or hot milk or a biscuit will often induce sleep. Go to bed later—some people need but six hours' rest.

Never be alarmed if an insect enters the ear. Pouring warm water into the canal will drown it, when it will generally come to the surface and can be easily removed by the fingers. A few puffs of smoke blown into the ear will stupefy the insect and it can then be removed with safety.

A cup of coffee may be made very nourishing if a well-beaten egg is stirred into it and little cream added. Mix together the egg, sugar and cream, then pour in the hot coffee gradually, whipping it with a silver fork. Taken in this way the coffee is almost as good as a meal to an invalid.

Apples aid the stomach in the digestion of other foods and therefore the best results are obtained from eating them after rather than before meals. After partaking of an unusually heavy dinner the eating of an apple will be ofund to facilitate an early digestion and afford great relief from the sufferings attendant upon indigestion.

Hard-boiled eggs, beloved of children, are not necessarily indigestible. If cooked for forty-five minutes in water not boiling but heated to a temperature of 175 degrees Fahrenheit they are as easily digested as the most hygienically prepared soft-boiled or poached eggs. Cooked in this way the egg will crumble to powder under a fork.

Laughter and Worldly Success.

"Speaking of laughter, I have often wondered if the laughing man and the laughing woman really get along better in the world than the man and woman who do not laugh, or if they laugh at all merely grin at some amusing thing," said the observant man. "I do not know, I am sure. Of course you will find that men and women of both types probably in your own acquaintance have been able to get along fairly well in the world. Laughter is no doubt good capital in a great many instances. It is equally true that the grim face, the sour look, I may say, has often proved a valuable asset The which would seem to indicate that there is a time to laugh and a time not to laugh."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

A Clinical Preparation that Positively Kills the Dandruff Germ.

A most important discovery has been made after a year's patient laboratory work aimed in a certain direction—it is Newbro's Herpicide, a preparation that prevents falling hair and speedily and permanently eradicates dandruff. These evils are caused by a germ or parasite that burrows into the scalp, throwing up dandruff as it seeks to sap the life of the hair at the root. There's no baldness without falling or thin hair, no thin hair without dandruff, and no dandruff if the germ is destroyed. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that will do the work. "Destroy the cause, you will remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan. Bowman & Company, Special Agents.

THE JUDGE WHO DRANK.

A distinguished Southern statesman tarried long with convivial friends a few afternoons ago When it came time for him to go to dinner he was somewhat unsteady, but very dignified He saw as soon as he sat down at his table in the hotel dining-room that it would be necessary for him to do something to divert his wife's suspicion, and he seized on the appearance of another and equally distinguished Southern statesman, who had been with him all the afternoon, as a topic of conversation "Isn't it a shame," he said, as the other statesman made his way to his seat at the next table, 'isn't it a shame that the judge drinks? I am very sorry to see it It pains me much' His remarks attracted attention and his wife, knowing she must say something, leaned over and remarked: "Is it possible that the judge has been drinking?" "My dear," said the statesman, summoning all his will power and drawing himself up in his chair, "is it possible that you cannot tell when a man has been drinking?"

EDISON ON CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

Thomas A Edison was recently asked if he had invented the apparatus used for the electrocution of murderers in New York and Ohio "I did not," he said, "and I am sorry that electricity has been put to such a use. Of course, that is the most painful method of putting anyone to death. There is a sensation of a moment only—as quick as the bat of an eye But in that second there is pain indescribable. The flash comes and the shock, it is ten times more excruciating than the feeling that results from one's placing his hands on live coals It is a burning, devilish, harrowing feeling Imagine the quick thrusting of 10 000 hot needle points into the body at one time and you may have a faint idea of the shock when the current is turned on' Mr Edison is opposed to capital punishment, holding that murderers should be locked up and put to work for life Indeed, he thinks that this would be greater punishment than killing them

ROCKEFELLER'S WEALTH.

A Wall street banker, who is said to be the head of one of the largest financial institutions of New York, is credited with the statement that the fortune of John D. Rockefeller will in a few years amount to $1,000,000 There are many estimates current of Mr Rockefeller's wealth estimates ranging all the way from $400,000,000 to $600,000 000, but the Wall street authority adds that all estimates of the Rockefeller fortune have been too low Years ago, Mr Gladstone was one of the guests at a dinner in England where the oldest member of the Vanderbilt family was also present Somebody whispered to the English premier that the rich American had $100,000 000, and Mr. Gladstone commented, after looking curiously at Mr. Vanderbilt: "Then I should say that he constitutes a peril to the American republic."

THE "MOUNTAN-HIGH" WAVES.

The size of the Atlantic waves has been carefully measured for the Washington Hydrographic Bureau. I height the waves usually average about thirty feet, but in rough weather they attain from 40 to 48 feet. During storms they are often from 500 to 600 fee long and last ten or eleven seconds, while the longest yet known measured half a mile and did not sped itself for twenty-three seconds —Chicago Journal.

WILL CLOSE WEDNESDAY FROM 11 a. m. to 2 p. m.
In response to a request from the executive committee of the Inter-Church Revival, the Lace House will be closed during hours noted above.

Our First Spring in the Bigger Lace House

How well we—and thousands of others, too—remember Spring of last year. Store all torn up and dust everywhere and no chance in any section of the house to make even a reasonable display. But how different this Spring. Plenty of room—plenty of light—a magnificent assemblage of Spring Goods and plenty of opportunity to display them aright. Come and note the difference.

More of the Swellest of Spring Hats have arrived since our auspicious Millinery opening last week. They're on display and nothing will please us better than that you come and give us your criticism of them.

The pricing of Lace House Millinery has always been one of the strongest features of the department. While our hats are equal in effect to the work of the best of the exclusive millinery stores, our prices are lower.

Dress Hats.....$5.00 to $28.50
Ready-to-Wear Hats.....$1.25 to $7.95
Untrimmed Hats in stylish variety.....50c to $3.50
Children's Sailor Hats.....45c to $1.50

Very complete display of flowers, foliage, fruit and ornaments for the most effective hat trimming. Experts always willing to assist you with their advice.

Ladies' Lawn Kimonas

The new kimonas are made of the prettiest of lawns—Persian, striped, figured with birds and flowers, etc. They are mostly trimmed with broad bias folds to contrast with body of garment and some are piped. Prices 65c, 75c and to $1.25.

New Wash Skirts

These have come in heavy crash and gingham—the kind suited for camping, tramping, picnics, etc. There are solid colors and stripes; all with deep flounces, some cut on the bias and finished with ruffles: some with two ruffles, or fancy stitching, but all useful and showy and of good value. Prices 50c, 65c, 75c and to $1.50.

Special Values in Gingham Aprons

Long, full-size check aprons with pockets, made of durable quality of gingham—19c each.

Gingham aprons with bib and shoulder straps—the kind that covers all over; in blue or brown checks—25c.

Fancy Mohairs

The Dress Goods section is now displaying a very complete line of Fancy Mohairs, than which there is nothing more popular this Spring.

36-inch Mohairs, grounds of all colors with little fancy checks, figures and fancy stripes.....50c yd
46-inch Mohairs in blue, brown and gray, with flakes and brocaded figures.75c yd
45-inch genuine English small-checked Alpacas in blue, green and brown.$1.00 yd
Other fancy grounds, fancy Mohairs up to.....$1.50 yd

Charming Display of Spring's New Suits

—the above remark refers to a number of elegant models that have come direct from the designers and are shown today for the first time.

Among the newest details is a novel effect in a fancy, high girdle blouse waist suit trimmed with fancy buttons and braid; sleeves of correct fullness; all-around kilt skirts.

Other styles include the very swell Redingote style, while with some the umbrella style of skirt has been followed.

The New Suits in mixtures, checks and herringbone Panama cloths are priced.....$16.50, $17.50 and to $27.50

The latest models in blue, black, brown and dark green broadcloths, and doe skin are priced.....$25.00, $27.50 and to $45.00

Swell suits in high-grade fancy etamines and Panama cloths—greens, blues, browns, black, fancy checks—prices.....$25.00, $27.50 to $35.00

Newest Coats For Spring Wearing

The new tan coats, as you will doubtless have noticed on the streets, are as popular as ever. They are finished with striking neatness and vary somewhat in length, though the popular average is still 22 to 27 inches. Prices.....$6.50, $7.50 and to $22.50

An elegant line of new coats made of fine prunella and broadcloth in fashionable shades are priced.....$17.50 to $19.50

Suits That Will Wash

Variety in plenty is manifested in the early showing of suits that are made to visit the laundry occasionally and to preserve their freshness.

Pretty percales, lawns, linens, silk-finished madras, batistes and fine checks are the materials from which these outing suits are built; the colors include everything good.

The new Wash Suits are stylishly finished; the waists follow closely the new shirt waist ideas with stock collars and fancy ties; skirts are mostly plaited, of the kind that responds satisfactorily to the work of the ironer.

Prices range from $1.95, $2.25, $2.50 and up to $7.25.

SOCIETY'S REALM

MISS LEWTHWAITE SOON TO MARRY

HER ENGAGEMENT TO GEORGE KEENEY PLEASING TO HER FRIENDS.

Another Oakland girl has been vanquished by the little brown god that presides over love affairs of Hawaiian folk, the victim being Miss Edith Lewthwaite, the announcement of her approaching marriage with George L. Keeney being one of the happy surprises brought by the last island mail, says the Call. Miss Lewthwaite has been teaching at Walluka, Mauii, for the last year, and just as her Oakland friends were beginning to expect an early visit from her comes the word that she has decided to establish her lares and penates under a bamboo tree permanently. The wedding is to be an April event, and in the meantime the happy couple are busy superintending the building of a home at Puunene, where Mr. Keeney is stationed. He is in the employ of the well-known sugar firm of Alexander & Baldwin, and occupies a very responsible and lucrative position. Mr. Keeney has sent to California for the house furnishings, and the plans call for complete and perfect appointments throughout the little island home.

The marriage will be solemnized in the small church at Kahului, a reception to follow at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Correll. The Keeneys are all California people, and Miss Kate Keeney, who has gone to the islands to be present at the wedding, will return immediately after to herself become a bride.

Miss Lewthwaite is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Lewthwaite of Fruitvale, and closely related to the L. A. Stephensons. She is a very attractive and lovable girl, and is a pianist of more than ordinary ability.

COMPLIMENTARY AFFAIR.

A pretty tribute of regard and appreciation was tendered Miss Adele Block last Saturday at the Majestic Theater when M. M. Dodge presented Miss Block with the Mizpah bracelet, a gift from admirers of the play in San Francisco. The members of the board of the "Daughters of California Pioneers," occupied a box near the stage. A. E. McMillan sang the love song of the minstrel and won hearty applause. A large number of people were present from this side of the bay.

FOR BRIDE ELECT.

Another affair is in prospect for Miss Marion Smith will be an elaborate luncheon to be given Thursday March 23 at the Claremont Country Club.

The hostesses on this occasion will be Mrs. A. A. Moore Miss Ethel Moore, Mrs. Walter Starr and Mrs. John J. Valentine.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Voorhies of Sutter Creek and Bayliss Coleman Clark of San Francisco, will take place Wednesday, April 26, at the Methodist Episcopal church at Sutter Creek. The wedding will be one of the society affairs of the coming month and there will be a large number of guests from Oakland and San Francisco where the charming bride-to-be has a host of friends.

The bride's attendants will include three Oakland girls Miss Mollie Mathes who will be maid of honor Miss Emily Chickering and Miss Lita Schlessinger, who will be bridesmaids.

A large reception at the country home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony and after a honeymoon spent in the East, the young people will make their home across the bay.

WOMAN'S CIVIC CLUB.

The Woman's Civic Improvement club will hold a meeting next Thursday afternoon at half past three at the Chabot Hall on Eleventh street. Charles S. Green will give an interesting talk on "Circulating Libraries for the Blind." The public is invited to attend the meeting.

CLUB AFFAIRS.

The Pallette, Lyre and Pen Club held a delightful meeting last Friday evening at the club rooms in Maple Hall. The last event was one of a series enjoyed by the members of this unique club, who have combined serious intellectual work with happy fellowship.

Two clever members had the program in charge last Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Baker, and there were several enjoyable numbers. Mr. Baker read a "Spring" poem which called forth complimentary criticism. Charles Woodbury read an original story and Mrs. W. E. Rollins read a quaint descriptive letter from her artist husband, who is among the Moki Indians. W. J. McCoy contributed two saxaphone solos.

Next Friday evening C. P. Neilson, artist and traveler, will entertain the club with an informal "Talk on Art."

MONTHLY LUNCHEON.

The monthly luncheon took place today at Ebell, and was one of the brilliant gatherings of the month. The club rooms had been artistically decorated by Mrs. H. P. Merritt, chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. W. McClymonds, Mrs. Dudley Kinsell, Mrs. Fred L. Button. The auditorium decorating committee includes Mrs. J. W. McClymonds, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ma H. Gorrill, Mrs. W. T. McHenry, Mrs. Charles F. Mau and Mrs. William Morris.

Mrs. J. Hamilton Todd was chairman of music for the afternoon.

The program contained the following numbers: Largo, ma non tanto from Bach, concerto for two violins, Miss Madeline Todd, Master James Hamilton Todd, Miss Beth Howard, pianist; (a) "Jean," H. T. Burleigh; (c) "The Slumber Boat," Jessie L. Gaynor, Mrs. Olive Reed Cushman, Mrs. Arthur Moore accompanist; (a) Impromptu, G flat, Chopin; (f) Songs Without Words, Mendelssohn; (c) Rhapsody, Op. 79, No. 2, Brahms, Mrs. Oscar K. Cushing.

Mrs. Paul Lohse was presiding hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. W. McClymonds, Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. F. B. Ogden, Mrs. E. W. Owen, Mrs. Emil Nusbaumer, Mrs. James Munsell, Mrs. William E. Milwain and Mrs. J. J. Meigs. Miss Eleanor Gates Perry, Mrs. George W. Mcnear Sr., Mrs. B. R. Morton, Mrs. Francis L. Musser, Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. Nason W. Mather, Miss E. C. Morrison, Miss Mary Mathewson, Mrs. J. W. McClure and Mrs. E. W. Marston.

IMMIGRANT STATION

SECRETARY METCALF TO TAKE UP THE MATTER WITH SECRETARY TAFT.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Owing to the failure of Congress at the session just closed to grant the request of the Navy Department for an appropriation of a small sum of money to complete the two traing ships now under construction at Boston and Mare Island navy yards, the department has been obliged to stop work entirely on the Cumberland at the Boston yard, and to consider the necessity of taking similar action in the case of the Intrepid at the Mare Island yard. The total appropriation for these ships was $320,000 in each case, but it became apparent during the past winter that more money would be required because of a generally greater cost of material and work. Therefore a deficiency estimate was submitted, which Congress probably by an oversight neglected to grant. The vessels are said to be needed badly for the training of midshipmen and apprentices.

TO ELECT OFFICERS.

The Oakland Association of Accountants and Bookkeepers has sent out the following notice:

"Dear Sir: The annual election of officers for the ensuing year will take place Tuesday, March 14, 1905, at 8 p. m., at the rooms of the association, 45 and 46 Blake block."

NEW THOUGHT DISCUSSION.

At New Thought Hall, 1006 Webster street, this evening the results of the election revival and inauguration will be discussed. Thursday afternoon the club will take up prohibition and temperance. In the evening at Mrs. Gillette's meeting the subject will be "Hypnotism." All are welcome.

PLAYS AT THE MACDONOUGH

A farce comedy new to Oakland opened a three nights' engagement at the Macdonough Theater last night before a well filled house and made quite a hit with its laughable situations and funny sayings. The company is a very good one and contains among its members an Oakland boy, Chas. King, who since his last appearance here, some four or five years ago, has developed into a comedian of no mean ability and last night in his characterization of Obadiah Daffodil, Jack's Uncle, an old man comedy part he showed much study and good interpretation. The other members of the company are all above the average and by their hard and conscientious work prove themselves to be among the best in their line of work that has been seen out here this season. Specialties of the high order were introduced by Mr. McLean, Miss Marjorie Mack and Kittie Walsh which were thoroughly appreciated by the audience. The action of the play is fast and there is a continual rush and bustle about it that keeps the audience in a state of perpetual laughter. It is one of those really good comedies so few of which have been seen of late and as good news travels quickly it is a safe assertion that the theater going public of this city will crowd the theater at the two remaining performances tonight and tomorrow night.

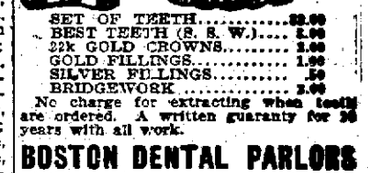

DAVID HARUM.

It would seem as if everyone who has read Edward Noyes Westcott's delightful character sketch of men, women and manners in Central New York, called "David Harum," would want to see the work in dramatic shape. In dramatic shape it has been for something over two years and a half and during that time, most of which has been spent in New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia, its success has verged upon the extraordinary. This is not at all wonderful, for the story was exceedingly popular and the dramatization made of it is extremely clever and satisfying. Mr. Cahn is to present the play at the Macdonough Theater next Saturday and Sunday matinees and nights giving it with a carefully selected cast and with a production that is all that could be desired. The dramatization was made by R. and M. W. Hitchcock and they are said to have taken very few liberties with it. The play is divided into three acts and the scenes take one to Homeville, New York. All of the characters of the book are in the play and so are the best of the many good lines and odd sayings which caused the readers so much enjoyment. Mr. Turner's individual hit in the comedy is, as was to be expected, most pronounced. He is an ideal Harum and brings out the many side lights in the old fellow's character with great skill. He shows Harum at his hobby, trading horses, shows him as a business man in his bank, and finally shows the man in his home. Seats are now on sale.

THE BELL.

The program provided by the management of this popular playhouse for their patrons this week is an exceptionally fine one, and was heartily received by two large audiences last night. The Rennee Family, consisting of five people, were very entertaining in a novel scenic singing act. Their work is good and they were well received. The Irving Trio are splendid acrobats. Their work is clever and the feats that they perform are new, and their efforts were much appreciated last night. The moving pictures are fine, of the comedy order and cause a great deal of laughter. Wise, the cartoonist, is fair; the singing of Jessie Dale is splendid; the sketch presented by Lydon and Wren, entitled "The New Woman," was much enjoyed by the audiences. Carter and Mendel made a decided hit last night. Their talk contains new jokes and seemed to take with the audiences immensely. The thrilling slide for life performed by Prof. La Mont last night in front of the theater was witnessed by 5,000 people. It was a remarkable performance and was much enjoyed. The professor will repeat his slide for life every night this week at 9:15 p. m. The bill in its entirety is an exceptionally fine one and will certainly do a big business for the house this week.

THE EMPIRE.

A complete change of program was presented at the Empire Theater last evening and the house was well filled at each performance. Those who attended were no doubt satisfied. The Twins trio are a top liner this week and are well worth the admission alone. Their act consists of triple horizontal bar performing, and is the greatest of its kind in the country. They are known as the "Child Wonders." They should be seen to be appreciated.

Lydell and Butterworth, black-face entertainers, are very good, they have some new puns and new style of dancing.

Miss Lizzie Wheeler, the trick pianist, is a clever artist introducing many styles in playing a piano.

Estelle Sims, the illustrated singer, is singing the latst Eastern success, "I have tried so hard to forget you," beautifully illustrated.

Delmar, Dexter Co. are presenting a very laughable sketch entitled "The "Deacon's Daughter." The audience is in an uproar from start to finish.

The motion pictures are very interesting, showing the late Japanese war scenes. The price of admission remains the same. Matinee each afternoon and at least two performances in the evening.

The Baby contest will close Monday, March 20.

THE NOVELTY.

There were two crowded audiences at the Novelty Theater last evening to witness the new program, which is presented every week. The new people compare favorably with those who are seen at this house, which means they are the best vaudeville talent to be had.

Among the new faces that made their initial appearance last evening, were Torcat, the great French comedian, assisted by Miss Flora L'Elza, a French soubrette of note and beauty. They have an act that has not been seen on this coast before and creates lots of merriment. Roscoe and Sims comedy musical artists are above the average in their line and Walter C. Kerrick renders a new illustrated song in his usual fine style. The Edwards duo marvels of the Roman rings, are exceedingly clever. Miss Kittie Miller, character change artist, is a success, and the Drews, singing and dancing comedians, received a hearty welcome. The moving pictures this week constitute the latest Japanese war films, seen in America for the first time. They are a very interesting budget.

The Penny Arcade is open every afternoon and evening, where the admission is free. There is a matinee every day and at least two evening performances.

SECRETARY NOT UNDER SUSPICION

Pres. Jordan Expresses His Belief in Her Innocence.

HONOLULU, March 14.—David Starr Jordan, president of the Stanford University, has expressed his confidence in the innocence of Miss Berner in connection with the death of Mrs. Jane L. Stanford. He said he believed her statements to High Sheriff Henry, and declared that the Coroner's jury wanted to state in the verdict that Miss Berner was exonerated from suspicion, but the jurors were prevented from taking such action on the ground that it was not the proper time for the expression of such opinion.

This statement by President Jordan is regarded by certain people connected with the case as a confirmation of the reports that the police exerted an influence in the dictation of the verdict.

In the absence of further discoveries the case of the death of Mrs. Stanford is resolving itself into a scientific controversy between chemists as well as between physicians.

Some prominent physicians here, who do not desire to be quoted, are against the poisoning theory and believe that Mrs. Stanford died from natural causes. On the other hand, the autopsy physicians and Dr. F. Humphris, who attended Mrs. Stanford on the night of her death, as well as other doctors who have been prominent here for many years, are absolutely positive that death was caused by strychnine poisoning.

R. A. Duncan, Food Commissioner and chemical analyst of the Board of Health, and Edmund Shorey, chemist of the United States Agricultural Station, formerly chemist of the Board of Health, who made the chemical tests, have prepared a statement of their experiments, and the physicians have prepared a detailed account of the autopsy.

The Advertiser today prints an interview with Dr Wood, who performed the autopsy on the body of Mrs. Stanford. He says that the presence of strychnine in the bottle of bicarbonate of soda refutes all the theories of natural death. The strychnine was a foreign substance there and it did no belong to the preparation of bicarbonate. Dr. Wood declares that the poison was thoroughly mixed with the bicarbonate of soda by some one who was thoroughly familiar with the strength and effect of strychnine, but he does not say that the strychnine was placed in the bottle with murderous intent. Regarding the efforts to account for symptoms on the theory of natural death, he says that he can make the ante-mortem symptoms or post-mortem symptoms or post-mortem signs apply to prove that death was due to a number of causes.

HONOLULU, March 13 (10:15 p. m.)—The detectives have five stenographers working on the statements they have taken today on the Stanford case, and four are engaged for tomorrow.

They say there is some doubt about their being able to take the steamer Alameda when she sails for San Francisco, but if they do not Miss Berner and the rest of the party will. Captain Callundan said tonight that he is well satisfied with the work so far accomplished, and he will probably be able to make a statement tomorrow, as the work has developed some new features. Detective Reynolds says it is unlikely that any definite conclusion will be reached here, as the indications are very strong that the detectives' work is tending to a result entirely different from that arrived at by the Coroner's inquest.

It can be stated positively that so far as their work has gone the detectives are strongly inclined to disagree with the conclusions reached by the Honolulu police.

NO FIGHTING IS REPORTED

ST. PETERSBURG, March 14.—General Kuropatkin, in a dispatch dated March 13, says he has received no further report of any fighting between organized bodies of troops, and announces that the Japanese are making reconnaissances. In a dispatch filed the previous day the Russian commander-in-chief notified the Emperor that General Meinindorff fell from his horse March 10 and fractured his collar bone. He was taken to Harbin and his recovery is hoped for.

ELOPED TO AVOID WEDDING

Police Are Looking For Miss Grosskirth and Her Lover.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Oakland's police have been requested to keep their eyes alert for Horace McMurray and Emma Grosskirth, both of this city. A warrant for misdemeanor embezzlement was sworn out before Judge Cabaniss yesterday, and it is stated that to-day warrants for felony embezlement and abduction will also be sworn to against him. For some months past McMurray has been employed by the Argonaut, and during that time he made ardent love to Miss Grosskirth, who comes of a well-known Vallejo family, but has been residing for some time past at 77 Haight street with her brother, who is connected with the management of the Central Theater.

McMurray, who is alleged to have represented himself to Miss Grosskirth and her people as part owner of the Argonaut, was to have married Miss Grosskirth last Saturday afternoon, but after the guests had assembled he called off the ceermony by telephone.

WANTED TO ELOPE.

Once before he tried to induce the girl, who is under age, to elope with him, but she refused to do so unless McMurray would first marry her. It is uncertain whether they have been married, and her brother and some of his friends spent last night searching the Oakland lodging-houses for the two.

The first intimation that anything was wrong came to the Argonaut office early this morning when McMurray telephoned that he was ill and would not be down. A short time afterward one of the collectors of the paper telephoned in that McMurray had been in advance of him on his rounds and had already collected $68 that he knew of, including $40 from the Palace Hotel.

WARRANTS SWORN TO.

The search for McMurray was then begun, the complaint sworn to, and the police notified and detectives put on the case. Two young people corresponding exactly with the description given of McMurray and Miss Grosskirth, boarded the 8:05 ferry last night for Oakland and it is believed they stopped there.

The Oakland police can do nothing authoritative in the matter, as they have no authority to arrest on a warrant for misdemeanor embezzlement sworn to in another county, but as soon as a felony charge is sworn to they will try to arrest the pair, and meantime will endeavor to locate and shadow them.

McMurray is only 18 years of age, and while Miss Grosskirth claims to be 19, her friends state that she is not yet 18. McMurray was given some publicity a few months ago when he jumped off one of the water front docks and saved a Swede from drowning.

ELMHURST MAN IS INJURED

Last Saturday evening, about 9 o'clock, as two men in a light buggy were attempting to drive over Davis street bridge, Fruitvale, to the Redwood road, one wheel of the buggy sank in a rut in the road, throwing one of the occupants, Richard Dowling of Elmhurst, to the ground. Mr. Dowling was semi-conscious when help arrived, but soon rallied, and it was found that the extent of his injuries were a couple of severe cuts on his face, painful but not serious. The roadway and bridge have long been considered as dangerous and last fall the approach to the bridge was fenced up by order of the Supervisors, but the ever-present small boy soon destroyed the fence, thereby setting a trap for the unwary stranger. A young man was killed on the bridge a few years ago by being thrown from a bicycle owing to the condition of the roads.

A Sign

of poor blood circulation is shortness of breath after walking, going up stairs, sweeping, singing, excitement, anger, fright, etc. Pure blood circulation means a sick heart, and a sick heart is a result of weak and impoverished nerves.

Everyone knows the results of poor blood circulation, but everybody does not know that the quickest and safest treatment is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

If you find these symptoms present you should not neglect them, but at once procure a bottle of

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure

It will cure, and at very little expense, compared with doctor's bills. We are so sure of it, that if first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will return your money. It will do for you what it has done for thousands in like condition.

ADVANCE SALE OF SEATS

SECURE TICKETS FOR ENGLISH GRAND OPERA AT MACDONOUGH.

Oakland demonstrated beyond a question of a doubt that it is the musical center of the Golden West today, for the interest which has been taken in the forthcoming engagement at the Macdonough Theater is without parallel in the history of the tour, that covers every State in the Union, of Henry W. Savage's English Grand Opera Company.

Early this morning a line of people formed in front of the theater awaiting the opening of the box office at 9 o'clock, and continued to increase in size until it had reached such proportions as to excite the interest of all passers-by.

The sale continued all day without any apparent diminution in the number of purchasers, and all records were broken, not only for the number of seats sold, but for the amount of money taken in.

Another peculiar feature of the sale was the fact that a large majority of the purchasers took seats for all of the performances and not for one particular night, as is generally the case, thus assuring to every performance what is commonly known as a "first night."

Evidently the fame of the organization has preceded them, as well as the elaborate manner in which each of the several operas to be presented here are produced.

Nothing has been left undone which might in any way heighten the effect desired, with the result that never in the history of modern productions of the great masterpieces has anything like these productions been seen on any stage.

Wagner's great tone drama, "Lohengrin," will be the opening bill, and will be followed on Tuesday evening by Verdi's tuneful "Il Trovatore." At the special matinee on Wednesday "Tannhauser" will be sung and the closing opera on Wednesday night will be Bizet's "Carmen." All of the favorites, including Gertrude Rennyson, Jean Brooks, Marion Ivell, Rita Newman, Joseph Sheehan, Winifred Goff, William Wegener, Francis J. Boyle, Harrison Bennett, Reginald Roberts and all of the others, will be heard here.

MRS. BERRIAN DIES FROM STARVATION

NEW YORK, March 14.—Mrs. Phoebe A. Berrian, reputed to be worth $500,000, widow of Samuel Berrian, one of the famous Hamilton Rifles volunteers, who achieved fame on the field of Gettysburg, is dead at her home in Flushing, L. I.

She had been a recluse since the death of her husband, nearly twenty years ago. Neighbors, seeing no signs of life about the house for a week, forced open the door and found Mrs. Berrian dying upon a couch. A few apples, a loaf of bread and a can of corn was the only food found in the house, and the doctors said the woman had literally starved herself into a general break-down, which caused her death.

Mrs. Berrian was deeply attached to her husband, and neighbors say that every evening since his death a plate had been set at the head of the oaken table in the dining hall of the homestead.

EDUCATION OF ORIENTALS

An institute for the purpose of educating Oriental youths under Christian influences is to be established at Berkeley and has been made the object of a corporation to be known as the Oriental Institute of California. The number of trustees is fifteen and those elected for the first year are: John Fryer, W. C. Pond, H. B. Heacock, J. H. Laughlin, George Campbell, George B. Smyth, C. S. Nash, C. A. Laton, Hiram Van Kirk, J. M. Chase, Warren Olney Jr., George S. Montgomery, W. J. Raymond, F. W. Damon, A. W. Naylor.

RALLY TONIGHT AT UNITARIAN CHURCH

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Unitarian Church will be held this evening at the church parlors. Preceding the meeting there will be a supper served to the members between the hours of 6 and 7:30 o'clock. The meeting is in the nature of a rally, and all are urged to attend.

FORMALLY CHARGED.

Connie Fitzgerald and J. Hawley, accused of burglariously entering the Wakefield Manufacturing Company's premises, were formally charged today and were before Police Judge Smith.

Both of the men have been in frequent trouble with the police before, but this is the first time that they have been charged with a felony.

They will be arraigned tomorrow on a charge of burglary.

NEW ISSUE OF BONDS.

PHILADELPHIA, March 14—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company held here today an issue of new bonds not to exceed $50,000,000 was authorized.

NEW OIL PROJECT IN KANSAS

Will Further the Fight Against Standard Company.

KANSAS CITY, March 14.—As a result of the fight against the Standard Oil Company in Kansas, elaborate plans for the erection by independent companies of pipe lines and refineries are in progress of formation, according to the Times. J. B. and A. L. Levy, oil men formerly from the Lima, Ohio, field are credited with having planned the erection of a refinery at Kansas for the production of fuel oil, the crude product to be piped from Kansas. The plans call for an outlay of three quarters of a million dollars and a daily output of 200,000 barrels of crude oil.

At Chanute, Kansas, a meeting of producers has been held to consider the project for a pipe line to Port Arthur, Texas. At the meeting a Chanut banker asserted that he had sold to an English concern operating largely at Beaumont, Texas, and in the Russian fields, seven and one half million dollars in bonds to push the enterprise. The line will be 650 miles in length, and have a capacity of 28,000 barrels of oil a day. The Cudahys, the Packers and John W. Gates are said to be interested in the Port Arthur project.

WHAT SHE FOUND THERE

Alameda County Woman Meets With Agreeable Surprise.

Bright and early Monday morning a well known Alameda county lady wended her way up Mission street in San Francisco, bent upon finding out whether or not the announcement of the Indianapolis Furniture Co., at 770 Mission street, on last Saturday was correct.

At the entrance of the spacious store containing five stories and a basement devoted to furniture and home furnishings, her eyes met with a most gratifying sight.

Large red tags graced many pretty pieces of furniture which indicated that this well known house, that for thirty one years had been conducting a large retail and wholesale business was in the midst of the first clearance sale. This was her opportunity for making a dollar do double duty, and the incentive to empty the well filled purse became stronger.

All large representative houses are rapidly becoming converted to the use of newspaper columns for conveying the merits of their goods to the general public and this standard concern has at last joined the ranks.

SUDDEN FLIGHT OF HIGH OFFICIALS

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 14.—Another palace intrigue, so common in the Sultan's entourage, has resulted in the sudden flight of a trio of high Ottoman officials, Generals Ahmet Pasha and Riza Pasha, aides de camp of the Sultan, and Arif Bey, his majesty's chamberlain.

It is said that the three officials fled abroad to escape the machinations of a secret police cabal at the Yildiz Kiosk, who were said to be bent on their destruction. Riza Pasha was recently attacked and wounded in a street brawl of men.

The assault is alleged to have been instigated by the chief of the secret police.

RECONCILED AT HIS DEATH BED

MONTE CARLO, March 14.—The Marquis of Anglesey died here today. The Marquis was notable through his personal and financial eccentricities. His wife arrived here two days ago and was reconciled with her husband at his death bed. A cousin inherits the Anglesey estates, which are exempt from the creditors of the late Marquis, who are arriving here, presumably to claim the available property of the deceased.

THE TIME WILL COME

When the Advice of This Oakland Resident Will Help You.

Very few people are entirely free from backache. It does not take much to derange the kidneys. A little cold, a strain, stooping positions or hard work, overtaxes those delicate organs, and many aches and pains promptly follow. An Oakland citizen tells you here how every kidney ill can be relieved and cured. Read about it:

Walter J. Plumber, of 1328 Versailles avenue, Alameda, jeweler, in employ of Geo. R. Moss & Co., says: "If the contraction of a cold which settled across the small of my back was not the primary cause of the aching in that part of my anatomy, I knew positively that when I caught a cold aggravation of the trouble was apparent. I have persistently and conscientiously tried medicines when these attacks were at their height but I met with very indifferent success. From reading an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills in a newspaper I was indeed induced to go to a drug store for a box. Relief followed the treatment in a few days and since I stopped using the pills there has not been a sign of a recurrence."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

A DISTINGUISHED CLAIRVOYANT

MME. REGINA RUFF, THE FAMOUS AMERICAN AND GERMAN CLAIRVOYANT, AND PSYCHOLOGIST, NOW IN OAKLAND — LATE FROM BERLIN, GERMANY.

Was Brought Here From Philadelphia to Locate Some Valuable Papers.

Without doubt one of the greatest known clairvoyants in the world today is Mme. Ruff the distinguished clairvoyant and psychic who has just come to Oakland from the East. The marvellous manifestations of her wonderful powers are as far superior to the ordinary palmist and fortune teller as the perfected automobile is to the wheelbarrow.

Those who come to scoff may not remain to pray but they go away with a puzzled look on their faces, wondering mightily. Perhaps you laugh at first, when you see rather peculiar methods used by the madame in telling a fortune, but, when she commences to talk and piles up fact after fact, which you know to be true, even to the smallest detail, your laugh dies away, and you gaze in amazement akin to awe at the mysterious woman before you, as though she were some uncanny being fresh from another world. You sit chained to the chair with fascination while your past and future are laid bare before you. After answering the final question you are perplexed and abstractedly draw forth your purse, throwing an inquiring glance at Mme. Ruff. She smiles and asks if you are satisfied, saying that she never accepts payment until assured that a person is perfectly satisfied and that they believe they have received a fair return for their money.

Most assuredly, the madam differs from other clairvoyants. You laugh, still rather confusedly, and like every one else, declare that you are glad to pay the small compensation asked. Many affirm no money value can be fixed upon the good which they have received.

The madam tells fortunes by clairvoyance. She is absolutely reliable, and realizing that merit brings reward when the reading is over with, you do not have to pay unless you feel satisfied with what you have been told.

Those who have been humbugged by the hundreds of fake fortune tellers now on the road will do well to consult Mme. Ruff. She gives advice on business, speculation and courtship. She settles lovers' quarrels, reunites the separated, causes speedy and happy marriages.

Clairvoyance is a branch of mesmerism, though it is more far-reaching in its effects. In clairvoyance it is the mind reader and not the subject who is affected by the mysterious influence. Mesmerism does not lift the veil of the future, whereas clairvoyance goes beyond the surface of the present and delves into the hidden depths of the "great beyond." Clairvoyance, in short, is a polished and advanced form of mesmerism, which has long been given world-wide recognition.

Mme. Ruff is both a clairvoyant and psychologist. She possesses, beside, remarkable spiritual powers and employs all three gifts in arriving at the truth of matter presented to her for elucidation.

Mme. Ruff has been studying every phase of this problem since her arrival and feels confident that she will be able to locate the papers. This would, indeed, be a manifestation of occult power which even the most skeptical critic could not sneeze at. There have been many manifestations of mental telepathy in connection with hidden articles, but the recovery of lost papers is an achievement vouchsafed to a few men. If Mme. Ruff crowns Oakland her career with the recovery of the missing documents she will command more respect for clairvoyance and psychology than those mysterious sciences have hitherto enjoyed, though they have not lacked for devotees.

Therefore, it must be said that Mme. Ruff is of the very highest class of clairvoyants. Her belief is that the material heavens have a moral influence over the earth and its inhabitants. There are some wiseacres who scoff at this idea, not knowing, perhaps, that the first study of the heavens embraced and dominated over every other attempt at science. Astrology was the beginning of science, the first encyclopedia of the world. In the ancient ages physicians consulted the stars before they applied potions and nostrums. The cosmogonists explained the earth by the influence of the heavens. The zodiac was the first book that lay open for all the world to read.

As for clairvoyance it has both supporters and enemies. The theory of clairvoyance, however, is inseparable from a science that has so firmly impressed itself upon the public mind as to leave no doubt of its truthfulness. Reference is made to mesmerism, or hypnotic influence, which of late years has been demonstrated to be as virile an occult force as one could well imagine.

Mme. Regina Ruff is permanently located and can be consulted daily at her private office 525 Thirteenth street, Eva Building, rooms 8-9; hours from 9:30 a. m to 8 p. m. Sundays from 10 a. m to 4 p. m. Fee within the reach of all

WALTER CHRISTIE SAYS COE IS "ATHLETIC VAGRANT"

CHICAGO, March 14.—The Boston friends of W. W. Coe Jr., the shotputter, have raised a purse of $4000 with which to back the big athlete against Ralph Rose in the shot-putting event at the meet in the Coliseum on March 28th. This information was contained in a letter to the Illinois Athletic Club today.

Although Ralph Rose only did 48 feet 1½ inches in the Amateur Athletic Union's event at Milwaukee on Saturday night, the enthusiasm of the cherry circle friends and the supporters of the big Californian runs high. They say he has the event at his mercy every time he enters, and expect to see the cherry circle colors triumphant at the Coliseum duel between the rivals.

SAYS HE IS A "BUM."

BERKELEY, March 14.—Walter Christie, trainer of the University of California athletic teams and for years the official trainer of the Princeton athletes, has cast a slur on the recent remarkable weight-throwing performance of Wesley W. Coe Jr. at Boston, for Christie asserts that, out of his own knowledge, the young shot-putter has already been connected with five preparatory schools and four universities, including Oxford, Princeton, Harvard and Yale. Christie says that young Coe is an "athletic vagrant," attending one university as long as he can and while his credit holds out, and then jumping to the next college where the "inducements" suit him.

GAMBLING IS NOT BAD, SAY THEY

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—Professor Herbert Gardiner, Lord of the University of Columbia, and Professor William J. Kirby of the Catholic University of America, have in addresses before the Contemporary Club, stated that they could find no reason for saying that gambling in itself was wrong. Both expressed the opinion that gambling cannot be eradicated from modern life and that the wisest thing to do is to properly control it. The discussion was listened to by a distinguished audience.

Professor Kirby, after admitting the theoretical legitimacy of gambling, made an appeal for a course of instructions in the schools which might lessen gambling in the next generation and said that cities should take up the work of regulating gambling as an essentially city problem.

"Gambling is not simply a game of chance," said he, "for chance is present in most business transactions. Gambling is not merely the desire for gain. It is not merely a means of excitement. The constitutional gambler is the man who desires only gain at play as a means to enable him to play again.

"It may seem strange for me to say so as a professor of ethics, but I have never been able to find a reason that will permit me to say gambling is wrong. It is argued that gambling is wrong because it is a waste. On the contrary there is no destruction of wealth in gambling.

"Properly done, gambling is not a dissipation but a recreation."

The last of the University Extension lectures has been postponed from Thursday, March 23, to Tuesday, March 28, at 3:30 p. m., and the subject will be Russian Art and Music, illustrated by phonograph as collected by Mr. Landfield on a recent visit to Russia.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.

Connie Fitzgerald and J. Hawley, both old acquaintances of the police, were arrested this morning by Special Policeman Ford on a charge of burglary, for having entered the Wakefield manufactury at 442 Fourth street. The men professed to be doing nothing. Hawley said that he had crawled in the building to get out of the wet and to find a place to sleep. Fitzgerald said that he was not doing anything.

Petition for letter of administration on the estate of the late Peter McColgan was filed by Public Administrator George Gray. He states that the property is valued at $800.

PROPOSE A BONUS FOR JIM JEFFRIES

MAY OFFER CHAMPION $10,000 TO MEET JACK JOHNSON

COLORED MAN IS WILLING TO GIVE

NEW YORK, March 14.—Champion Jim Jeffries is to be offered a bonus of $10,000 to cast aside race prejudice and fight Jack Johnson, the "black giant" of the Pacific Coast, if the plan of Thomas Ryan, a sporting man of Oshkosh, Wis., goes through. Ryan is willing to start the fun with $100, which he thinks the sporting men of America would soon increase to $10,000 to bring about the match between Jeffries and Johnson.

He figures that some club would offer a purse of at least $25,000, and this, together with the $10,000, would net Jeffries about $30,000 for one battle. Ryan wants to raise this fund because he thinks Johnson is recognized as the best of heavy-weights, barring the champion, and wants Jeffries to demonstrate that he is the real champion of the world beyond a doubt.

JOHNSON SAYS:

"Well, well, I'll give a few dollars toward that fund myself," declared Jack Johnson this morning at Link Dennis', West Oakland. The colored champion is working at the West Oakland sporting headquarters for his battle with Marvin Hart, down for decision this month.

"Yes, sir," said Johnson to the TRIBUNE, "I will contribute to that fund myself if it will assist in my securing a match with Jeffries.

"It is my one ambition to face the champion, and I believe that upon the showing I make with Hart there will be a public demand that he meet me inside the ropes.

"Public opinion is being gradually turned into the channel leading to the making of a match with Jeffries. He can not always refuse to meet me because I am not white, for he has fought colored men before, namely McVey and Armstrong.

"Yes, sir, I believe that the time is about here when he will be forced by the sporting public to cast aside race prejudice and meet me for the championship title."

WOODS IN TRAINING.

Billy Woods, Biddy Bishop's clever middle-weight, went into training this morning at Link Dennis' for a battle with Bob Cairns, to take place at Marysville one of the last days of the present month.

Woods and Johnson will work out together and no doubt will attract a large crowd daily to Link Dennis' emporium to watch the boxing of the heavy and middle-weight champions of the colored division.

STANFORD'S ACTION WILL NOT PREVENT RACES ON ESTUARY

BOATING CONTESTS ARE ARRANGED WITH CALIFORNIA AND WASHINGTON

RETURN MEET TO BE HELD NEAR SEATTLE

BERKELEY, March 14.—Whether or not Stanford chooses to row California this year will not affect boating in this University.

S. S. Hawley, president of the boat club, signed an agreement yesterday with R. H. Evans, athletic manager for the University of Washington, whereby several races are provided with that institution.

According to the agreement, one race will be rowed in shells on the Oakland estuary on the morning of April 15, the crews to consist of four men with or possibly without coxswains.

RETURN RACE.

A return race will be rowed in the neighborhood of Seattle between May 18 and the middle of June. The Freshmen crews of the two universities will also race at the same time. If there is any handicapping to be done it shall be left in the hands of a committee to be eventually agreed upon by the respective managements.

While Washington crew is south the University will pay for their entertainment and incidental expenses, while Washington agrees to pay $150 toward taking the University crew to Seattle.

AGREEMENT.

The agreement will go into effect upon being ratified by the executive committee of the two universities, there being little doubt as to obtaining this ratification.

Evans came south with the express purpose of coming to an agreement, while the action of California's executive committee depends upon the boat club directions, who favor the agreement.

RACES IN SHELLS.

All the races will be in shells, including the Freshman event at Seattle. Both northern races would be without coxswains, while it is uncertain as to what would be done down here.

The probabilities are that California will row with a coxswain and Washington without, California receiving some kind of a handicap.

Coach Garnett and Washington's manager will go to Standford next Wednesday to see if further arrangements cannot be made for a three cornered regatta.

California does not wish to row at Stockton, while Stanford positively refuses to row on the estuary.

If a compromise is not soon affected there will be neither 'Varsity nor Freshman races.

ON ESTUARY.

Prospects are bright on the estuary, where all the class and 'Varsity crews are working actively.

Last Thursday the 'Varsity had three test races with the Sophomores to see which stroke would be adopted.

The three strokes were the professional, the Harvard-Yale, and the stroke used by the University last year against Stanford. The 'Varsity was victorious in all three races by about one boat length.

No final decision was made as to the adoption of the stroke.

Garnett yesterday picked seven men from which the Freshman crew will be selected.

They are H. J. Schaufele, C. L. Stokes, M. H. Wilbert, W. J. Radford, L. A. Clark, W. K. Tuller and L. Einstein.

The 'Varsity crew will be picked in a couple of days. The class races will be held Charter Day, a week from Thursday.

Switch Buck Francks For Jay Hughes?

As Jay Hughes does not want to come back to Seattle at a reduced salary, and as Buck Francks declares that he will not play in Oakland this year under any circumstances, why would it not be a good idea for Manager Hall to trade Jay for Buck? Francks is a corking good shortstop and a fair hitter, and Russ could use him to advantage, for then he could play third himself, where he does his best work.

A great many Seattle fans believe that Jay is about all in as a pitcher, and a trade of that kind would be regarded here as a good one. Russ might throw in Tommy Leahy, too, for it seems out of the question to negotiate a trade for the little catcher. His conduct on the last trip of the Seattle team South last year was anything but good, so there is no room for him on the Seattle pay roll. Now that Thomas realizes that he will be lucky to get a job at all, he will probably brace up and behave himself when he does get a chance. He is a very fair catcher when in condition, and is liable to deliver a hit in a pinch, but he is not a star player in any department of the game.

LIKE OVERALL.

The Cincinnati papers are devoting a lot of space to big Overall. They are printing mammoth pictures of the California giant, and are rehearsing his feats of prowess on the football field. Overall has been telling Eastern scribes that Tacoma won the pennant because the members of the team were just like a big, happy family, with every man willing any time to do anything to help any other man out. Incidentally the big fellow says that if the same spirit prevails on the Cincinnati team he feels sure that he will make good. He has made a request of Manager Kelly to pitch him at least two games a week, for he says he has to work that often to be at his best. If he starts off right, the chances are that Overall will have no complaint about not having work enough to do, for the veteran pitchers on the team will like nothing better than to sit back in the shade and advise the youngster what to do.

HALL'S HIRED HANDS.

Russ Hall writes that the men who are now working out at Santa Barbara are Skel Roach, Charley Hall, Henderson, Shields and Franklin, pitchers; Frary and Curtis, catchers; Bacom first base; Egan and Burns, second base; Hall, shortstop; Vorhees, third base; Kane, Houts, McHale and Miller, outfielders. Jay Hughes and Tommy Leahy have not yet reported, and there is no certainty that they will. It is a matter of supreme indifference to Manager Hall whether Tommy Leahy reports or not. Any club that has anything to trade can get the little catcher with the piano legs, for there is no room for him on the Seattle team, according to the present program. Nick Williams has signed at last and will report March 12. As he has been coaching the team of the University of California, he is in good shape. Nick pitched good ball last year, despite the fact, that he had a lot of hard luck. One peculiarity about Williams last year was that he pitched better ball on the road than he did at home, so the fans here have not seen him at his best. A little difference over salary matters stood between Nick and the club owners, but that was soon adjusted and the blone-topped twirler will take his turn in the box.

AMATEUR FIGHTS THURSDAY NIGHT

Wrestling, too, on Cards

Lovers of fistic sport will find something to their liking at the exhibition to be given by the West Oakland Club next Thursday night.

GOOD CARD.

The card as arranged is composed of the cleverest amateur scrappers in this region who have all appeared in former contests. They are working into top-notch condition and will undoubtedly make a good showing.

WRESTLING MATCH.

In addition to the regular program of five four-round bouts, an extra attraction in the shape of a wrestling match has been arranged, and as a large side bet has been made for this event, a hot contest will be in order.

This brings out Chippy Mariar of Becker's Market and Charles Yonnella of North Beach. Both are in active training and will give the spectators a run for their money.

THE BOXERS.

The balance of the card is as follows: Kid Josephs, W. O. A. S., meets Al Paczech of the Sunnyside Club, San Francisco, in the first go. Both are good lads, and will put up an excellent go.

The next bout brings out Hop Lee and Jim Coakley at 130 pounds. Both are getting into excellent trim for their meeting and will put up a hurricane bout.

Next on the program will be Joe Perry, E. O. A. C., and Mat Foley, Eureka Club. Both are aggressive as well as fast fighters and their bout will be full of action from start to finish.

The next bout brings out two who wish to settle as to who is the better man, and they will proceed to resolve a long-standing question. The next go will also be a hot one. This brings out Battling Murphy, Race Track and Kid Mary, Philadelphia, at 120 pounds. Murphy put up a rattling contest at the last show and proved that he is a comer. His opponent comes with a good record and will give him a very hard bout. All the contestants are in fine shape and will put up excellent fights.

ONE JOCKEY SUSPENDED: ANOTHER ONE FINED

"Kansas" Price, after a very successful season here, has packed his belongings and shipped his stable to Bennings. He is in love with California and will be back here again next season.

The stewards suspended Jockey McBride for thirty days after his exhibition of rough riding on Gold Enamel. He will be allowed to ride for his employers' stable. McBride is a capable rider, but has given a number of just such exhibitions as that of yesterday and a little disciplining will not hurt him much.

J. Jones, for rough riding in the same race, was fined $25. Jones got off remarkably well. He rides at times brilliant races and sometimes he rides like a rhinoceros.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

TODAY'S SUBURBAN NEWS

BUSINESS DONE BY BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Town Officials of Berkeley Attend to Affairs Connected With Their Offices.

BERKELEY, March 14—The Board of Town Trustees met in regular session last night, all the members being present

The protest against opening Blake street was laid over for two weeks

A protest against opening Prince street was overruled

A protest against the report of the commissioners appointed to open Haste street was heard, the protestants objecting to the charges of the commissioners for attorney's fees and other expenses.

Mr. J. Carpenter said he came all the way from San Diego to protest against the commissioner's report His property fronts on College avenue and Dwight way He declared that he was being injured rather than benefited by the opening of the street, yet is asked to pay for the change

Miss Anna Head presented her case to the board She conducts a school for girls in the district She believed that if the street was opened the privacy of her grounds would be destroyed and the damage to her business would be at least $5000

Other protestants were heard, complaining of alleged inequalities in the assessments

Commissioner Griffith defended the report, saying that many of the protestants were being benefited many thousands of dollars, even if they are unable to see it. Miss Head, for example, he said would make 18,000 as a result of the opening of Haste street

After an hour's discussion, Trustee Staats moved the protest be sustained

The salaries of the officials connected with the commission were reduced to be as follows commissioners reduced from $200 to $50 each, clerk reduced from $200 to $125, attorney reduced from $600 to $25

Judge Wooley was ordered to be given $500 damages instead of $150, and thus amended the report was adopted

Frank C. Jordan, Clerk of the Supreme Court, was present to explain the merits of the voting machine which the trustees have planned to use at the coming municipal election Twelve will be used

STREET COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Committee on Streets reported as follows.

We recommend that all streets between the northerly and southerly boundaries of the Town of Berkeley running east and west be extended to the water front line as said line is shown upon map of the State Tide Land Survey, said streets being more particularly designated as follows Harrison Rose, Page, Jones, Holyoke, Virginia, Delaware, Bristol University avenue, Allston way, Bancroft way, Channing way Parker, Carlton, Grayson, Snyder avenue, Ashby avenue and Folger avenue and that the whole town of Berkeley be included in the assessment district to cover the costs of said work

That if Mr Webb will give a right of way across his property on the west side of Adeline street south of Ashby avenue the Town of Berkeley will lay a 24-inch pipe across the same to connect with the present culverts at Adeline and Grove streets

We recommend that the park area in Adeline street be improved from Alcatraz to Ashby avenue and maintained at the expense of the town and that the same be planted with shrubs and lawn

We recommend that cement sidewalks be constructed on both sides of Shattuck avenue from Ashby avenue to Ward street where not already done

That Ward street be macadamized and guttered between Shattuck avenue and Fulton street

That Resolution of Intention No 864-A for the construction of cement sidewalks on the north side of Ward street between Ellsworth and Dana streets be rescinded

ORDINANCES ADOPTED.

Ordinances were adopted fixing and establishing the compensation of certain named town officials and defining the duties and fixing the compensation of the Town Engineer, as hitherto published.

Resolutions were adopted rescinding resolution of intention No 864-A for a cement walk on north side of Ward street between Ellsworth and Dana streets, adopting specifications for a sewer in McGee avenue, for sewer in McGee avenue from Ward street 105 feet southerly; for cement walk on easterly side of Piedmont avenue between Parker street and Forest avenue; to regrade curb, gutter and macadamize Josephine street between Berryman and Hopkins streets

FAVORS BIG "C"

Architect John Galen Howard Enthusiastic Over Project.

BERKELEY, March 14.—A barrier to the progress of the underclassmen in choosing the most favorable position for the big cement "C" to be erected on Charter Hill next Saturday has been eliminated by the co-operation of John Galen Howard, the college architect.

Lloyd Bryan, president of the sophomore class, and R C Cameron consulted Professor Howard to ascertain if the position selected for the 'C' would conflict with the plans of the Greater University. It is likely that this monument would be disturbed within the near future by the erection of a building, but as the work will be of a substantial nature it was deemed essential to take proper precaution.

The present plans of the Greater University call for a building in the position that the big "C" will occupy However Professor Howard was enthusiastic over the undertaking and stated that provided the "C was not placed in the roadway which will continue east from the botanical gardens, the most prominent position might be selected and that other plans would be changed accordingly.

CLUBS TO GIVE A BENEFIT

ENTERTAINMENT TO SECURE MONEY FOR THE ROAD FUND.

FRUITVALE, March 14—A benefit entertainment will be given some time next month at Dimond Hall to increase the road fund Three improvement clubs, the Allendale, Laurel Grove and High Street clubs, are to co-operate in giving the affair A literary program, refreshments and perhaps games will be included in the evening

The proceeds will be devoted to improving the streets and roads roundabout.

FRUITVALE NOTES.

J. Beevort of Melrose suffered a painful accident yesterday. He fell against a revolving shaft in a certain lumber mill and was severely bruised on the body and cut about the head. Dr. Callen attended to his hurts.

Tonight the Board of Trade will hold a meeting at Masonic Hall to discuss the High School issue.

A $2,000 house has been started by H. Hunse on the Vernon tract near the station

BUSINESS MAN TALKS

Insurance Expert Addresses College of Commerce Students.

BERKELEY, March 14.—"The Proper Sphere of Insurance Legislation" was the subject of a lecture delivered before the College of Commerce yesterday afternoon by Mr. Herbert Folger, a member of the judiciary committee of the Board of Fire Underwriters.

Mr. Folger stated that the Board of Fire Underwriters count it a privilege to thus come in contact with college men "Hitherto," said he, "our insurance men have been drawn from the High Schools nearly altogether and we hope the time has come when the more completely equipped college man will begin to find his way into our ranks"

Mr. Folger devoted most of his remarks to the laws affecting insurance companies He said in part "The laws relating to State corporations are of necessity very elaborate. American law in respect to insurance offers a marked contrast to those in foreign countries inasmuch as it requires capital to be paid up

"In the old days when corporations were not under such strict supervision as at present failures of insurance companies were frequent When this occurred two kinds of creditors appeared, those who had lost by conflagrations and those who held unexpired policies in the company. To meet the demands of these latter creditors the law now requires the maintenance of an unearned premium reserve, a very important feature in insurance. In a few States it is required that a deposit be made by an insurance corporation upon entering a State

"The effect of New York's foreign corporation law is to place foreign companies on the same footing as home corporations. Oregon provides that deposits be made for the benefit only of Oregon policy holders

"A most unfortunate fact," said Mr. Folger, "that policies are seldom read. A man will merely glance at his contract to see that the amount is correctly stated and oftentimes does not even know the name of the company he is insured with It is also well to bear in mind that pooling of interests is not possible for insurance companies The profits of two companies differ in the same field Sagacity and training are the things which count for most in an insurance man's equipment"

In conclusion Mr Folger said "The proper sphere of insurance legislation is to assure absolute security to policy holders and keep the company from having to pay excessive or unusual losses"

FRANK W. LOPEZ IS DEAD

HAYWARDS YOUTH PASSES AWAY SATURDAY AT SANTA ROSA.

HAYWARDS, March 14—Frank W. Lopez, aged sixteen years and six months died Saturday in Santa Margarita, San Luis Obispo county He was a native of Haywards, and the remains were shipped here for interment The funeral was held yesterday at the Catholic church, Rev. Father Villdamot officiating Interment was at the Catholic cemetery.

The youth was very popular here and there was a large attendance at the service Many pretty floral offerings were brought by friends

CHILD IS BURIED.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr and Mrs M. Pasqual took place yesterday morning immediately after that of Frank Lopez at St Mary's church The child had been christened Mary Rosa Pasqual and was only two days old. Its death occurred Saturday and was the result of a sudden attack of pneumonia. The parents are old residents here and have a large circle of friends

DEAD FROM FRIGHT.

NEW YORK, March 14—Mrs John Fletcher, 60 years old, is dead from fright at her home in Lakewood, N J. Her grandson had set fire to a brush heap in the front yard and Mrs Fetcher, fearing it would spread to the house, hurried out with a pail of water. A puff of flame caught the bottom of her dress and she fell dead with a scream of terror.

ANNUAL JOSH DAY

University Men and Women Prepare Jokes Formal Publication.

BERKELEY, March 14.—Tomorrow will be the annual Blue and Gold josh day, and everyone who has a josh on a member of the college community is expected to contribute the same. It is particularly desired that each josh be written up in the form in which it is to be inserted in the book.

This special day has been set aside in order to give the joshes the widest scope possible. It is hoped in this way to include the entire student body in funny pages of the annual soon to appear. The joshes can be left in the josh box at the Blue and Gold office or handed to any of the editors around the campus.

Work on the Blue and Gold is progressing favorably, the engravers having their part well along toward completion, but the book will probably not be issued before May 1.

Several well known San Francisco and Eastern artists have contributed work to the annual.

LODGE MEETING PLANNED

ODD FELLOWS IN AN ALL-NIGHT SESSION AT SAN LEANDRO.

SAN LEANDRO March 14—There is joy in the hearts of all the Odd Fellows of Lodge No 231 for the anniversary celebration for all of Alameda county is to be held here. April 29 is the date set for the affair though the eighty-fourth birthday of the lodge come on the 26th. St. Joseph Hall will probably be chosen as it is the largest in the town and 100 people are expected at the celebration

A parade in the afternoon, a great banquet and perhaps a torchlight procession will precede the real business of the evening The meeting proper will take place behind closed doors and is to last all night. A contest between the degree teams of the twenty-one lodges is to be the feature of the program Certain of teams will compete for the supremacy in giving the initiatory degree, other will show their methods in bestowing the first, second and third degrees. Each lodge will bring some candidates to "ride the goat."

The lodges of the county arrived at the decision to favor San Leandro at a meeting of delegates in Oakland last Friday. It was at first settled that Livermore should have the honor, but San Leandro's representative, E. Grundman, made a strong plea for his town, on the grounds of position, size, and accommodations. Though it had seemed a forlorn hope to those who had sent him the decision was finally brought about to hold the exercises here.

When the delegats meet next, March 24, at Oakland, a committee of arrangements will be chosen to have entire charge of the preparations The members of the lodge here will not be obliged to contribute either work or money beyond the other lodges.

PERSONALS

L D. Critchlow spent yesterday in Alameda attending to arrangements for the funeral of his brother, who was recently killed in Oakland

Mr and Mrs. William Fulton were in San Leandro yesterday visiting the family of J. Logan, superintendent of the water works at Lake Chabot.

DIED FROM STARVATION.

NEW YORK, March 14—A young woman describing herself as Ida Fletcher, or Levy, 22 years of age, and who says she came to this city from a Connecticut town a year ago has been found dying from starvation in a small room of a Harlem tenement house. With her was a baby eight months old. Quick consumption has seized the young mother and she can live only a few days, but refuses to tell the name of her parents

Neighbors notified the police when they learned of her pitiful state. One, who did not know that she was in such dire need, had daily left a can of condensed milk for the baby The girl says that she shared this, and that was all the nourishment she had in twenty days The infant was emaciated and weak, but it is believed it can be saved The girl would only say she came here and fell in with bad companions. Unable to work, she had pawned everything of value, and finally became too ill to leave her bed

An effort is being made to locate her parents in New England.

ADVANCEMENT CLUB HOLDS OPEN MEETING.

Reports Presented Showing the Good Work That is Being Done For Alameda.

ALAMEDA, March 14—The Alameda Advancement Association held its first open meeting in several months last night in the Assembly hall of the High School. The meeting was well attended.

President Charles S. eal opened the meeting by outlining the work the organization has done during the past year. The Association he said, met with the City Trustees and encouraged them to make a substantial tax levy for the schools. The Association also was largely instrumental in having the municipal electric plant run all day, assisted the Adelphian club in beautifying the High School grounds, printed and circulated literature about Alameda which brought many responses, printed time tables of the local ferry system, which were circulated in connection with literature, and so helped to bring many people to the city. Other advertising matter printed is the report of Dr. W O. Smith on the health of Alameda, and an envelope containing advertising matter on its back, which was sold at cost, many merchants purchasing them, and to disseminating information about the city

The feature of the evening was an illustrated lecture on the Moqui Indians and their snake dance Prof. Monsen has spent many years among the Indians of the southwest, taking pictures, and studying their habits, and his lectures are very interesting. All the slides for the stereopticon he makes himself from his own photographs.

Last night he took the traveller from the nearest railroad point over the rough mountain road to the Moqui or Hopi, as they call themselves, villages.

The ceremonies of the snake dance, the Hopi's prayer for rain, was illustrated in all its stages, from the time the snakes are caught to the time when the Indians dance about the writhing reptiles, most of them rattlesnakes, in their mouths, to the final act, the taking of an emetic to purify Prof. Monsen says the latter is purely a par of the religious rite, and is not, as many have assumed, a precaution or antidote against the poison of the snakes

ADELPHIAN CLUB.

ALAMEDA, March 14—The ladies of the Adelphian Club will hold a special meeting on March 17, for the purpose of deciding upon the location for the new club house they propose to build.

The locations are prominently mentioned, one on the corner of Central avenue and Walnut street, diagonally across from the High School, and the other on the south side of Central avenue a few lots removed from the public library. The former location, because of its south and east frontage, and its being a corner will probably be selected

As soon as the lot is decided upon it will be purchased by the club There is enough money in the treasury now to make a good payment, and there are various plans for raising the balance. One is to incorporate and form a stock company, while the other, and most favorably thought of, is to issue bonds as did the Century Club of San Francisco. It is thought there would be no trouble in circulating low interest bonds to the amount required among the club membership. This latter method of raising the money, by bond issue, is most favorably considered because it would prevent the possible contingency of the management of the club's affairs falling into undesirable hands through the purchase of a majority of the stock.

FUNERAL HELD TODAY.

ALAMEDA, March 14.—The funeral of Louis A. Critchlow, the victim of Saturday's street car accident, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Masons and the Woodmen of the World, of which lodges the young man was a member.

The deceased was well known in Alameda, and had made friends with every patron of his line, having that disposition that gained an acquaintance with all.

INSPECTION OF COMPANY G.

ALAMEDA, March 14—At 2 o'clock this afternoon Colonel Wilhelm, representing the United States, and Lieutenant Anderson of Sacramento, representing the State, made an inspection of the accouterments and equipment of Company G, N. G. C. Everything was found in good condition

This evening Colonel Wilhelm and Major D A Smith, the latter the representative of California, will inspect the company, and quiz the officers and men on the new drill tactics

A BENEFIT AFFAIR.

ALAMEDA, March 14—Next Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, the entertainment is arranged and given by the ladies of the Choral section of the Adelphin Club, this club having had the maintenance of the bed.

Society of the Encinal City has taken an interest in the affair, and will be there in force. It is expected that the funds desired will be raised by the entertainment.

The affair will be largely musical in nature, and some of the best talent about the bay will participate.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

ALAMEDA, March 14.—Walter F. Dietz, for years connected with the Sunny Cove Baths, died Sunday, and his funeral was held from his late residence this morning The remains was interred in Mountain View Cemetery.

The entertainment at the Unitarian Club next Wednesday will consist of a lecture on hypnotism by Henry H. Brown, editor of "Now," and a leading expounent of "New Thought." He will give a scientific discourse of the result of his studies Sam Exton Foulds will give an exhibition of telepathic powers.

The West End Alameda Improvement Association will given a prize whist party in the Wigwam, corner of Central avenue and Webster street, next Thursday evening.

Charles Laubenheimer and family of Railroad avenue, will shortly move to San Francisco for the summer.

Hugh E. Laird of Tempe, Arizona, is here visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Laney, of 2252 Central avenue. He will probably locate in Alameda.

TALK BY "CO-EDS"

"Mikado" Company's Trip to Sacramento Discussed at Meeting.

BERKELEY, March 14—The women of the "Mikado" cast met Miss Ethel Richardson president of the Associated Women Students, in room 16 North hall, at 10 o'clock this morning for the purpose of hearing discussions on Mrs. Wheeler's objection to the cast going to Sacramento. The meeting was the result of an interview Manager Samuels had with Mrs. Wheeler yesterday morning. They decided that it was a matter not to be decided upon by them, but should be referred to the Associated Women Students and the women of the "Mikado" cast themselves. If they see sufficient reasons for postponing the trip they will do so

The women of the cast heard the opinions of the wives of some of the prominent faculty members at today's meeting They considered at length Mrs Wheeler's objection to the cast going to Sacramento without chaperones Among the women who spoke are Mrs Wheeler, Mrs Frank Soule and Mrs Walter Magee

Professor Magee has expressed his opinion that he sees no harm whatsoever in letting the cast go to Sacramento without chaperones

TEMPTATIONS IN COLLEGE

BERKELEY, March 14—Miss Theresa Wilbur will speak to college women on "Temptations in College" She is making her official visit as State secretary for the Y W. C A. During the week she is planning to meet the association members in a personal way.

TURK DEFEATED.

CHICAGO, March 14.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Racine, Wis, says:

Maradaulah, the "Terrible Turk," who advertised to throw three men two falls each in ninety minutes here has lost the match. The first man to go on was Mart Henderson of Chicago, whom the Turk threw twice in 3:30 and 8:30 "Gripman" John J. Rooney was then thrown in eight minutes, but the second fall went to Rooney, who threw the Turk in ten minutes. This is the first decision Rooney has ever secured over the Turk

POOR MAN GETS A BIG REWARD

NEW YORK, March 14—A splendid diamond brooch containing stones weighing 23 carats and valued at $15,000 which was lost last Saturday night by Mrs. T. Edwin Ward as she was leaving a theater with her husband has been returned by the finder who received a reward of $1,000 in cash The man's identity was not made known but he appeared to be in poor circumstances He returned the jewels in reply to an advertisement

Mrs Ward missed her brooch on arriving at a restaurant immediately after the theater closed.

Search was made and detectives scoured the city without success In reply to an offer of $1,000 reward made in the name of the jeweler from whom the brooch was purchased, a man called and on learning that the offer was genuine produced the gems and received the cash Early Sunday morning he said he was walking through Thirty-fifth street and as he passed the theater he glanced down through an iron grating in the sidewalk Something glittered at the bottom of the vault. He hurried to a neighboring saloon and borrowed a piece of soap Fastening this on the end of a long stick he speared for the shining object several minutes before he succeeded in making it adhere His astonishment knew no bounds when the value of his find was made known.

LEAVES FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

NEW YORK, March 14—Agents of James Farley, who furnished men to fill the places of strikers on the elevated and subway lines, here, are reported to have started for San Francisco, accompanied by about fifty professional "strike breakers." Farley is said to have gone to his Chicago headquarters, when he will move to the Coast. There have been no reports recently of trouble on the San Francisco system and the object of the reported trip is unknown.

KILLED IN SUBWAY.

NEW YORK, March 14.—William H Curran, one of the twenty-nine persons hurt in the rear-end collision of subway trains last Tuesday afternoon at Twenty-third street, is dead, Curran was a young law clerk on his way home when the wreck occurred.

FAVOR NEW LAW

Trustees Adopt Resolution Which Goes to Governor.

BERKELEY, March 14—The Board of Town Trustees received the following letter from Assemblyman Waste last night

"Senate bill 862 (Simpson), identical with Assembly bill 1134 (Waste), providing for the doing of work by cities when no bids are received for such work has passed both houses and is now before the Governor. I found it more expedient to have the Senate bill brought over I could not get the Assembly bill up on account of our tremendous file—several hundred bills died there.

"I send you several copies of the Assembly bill—they are identical. If your board favors the bill have a resolution passed at your meeting next Monday night if you can indorsing the bill, and have a copy sent to Governor Pardee"

In accordance with the suggestion of the Assemblyman a resolution was adopted and ordered sent to Governor Pardee

LINOLEUM GOES UP.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Leading manufacturers of linoleum have agreed says the Journal of Commerce, to advance all inlaid goods 10 per cent and all printed goods 20 per cent, the increase to take effect on all goods manufactured from today. Present stocks will be sold at the old prices between now and May 1st after which nothing will be sold except at the new figures. This action has been prompted, the manufacturers explained by radical advance in the cost of raw material. Jute, which, in the form of burlap, forms the principal ingredient in the manufacture of linoleum, is at the highest price in over a decade.

HIGH PRICED PICTURE.

CITY OF MEXICO March 14—A genuine Murillo, a painting of the Madonna and Child, belonging to the Villaga family of Toluca, has been bought by Sidney A. Witherbee of New York for $30,000. The painting was brought from Spain by an ancestor of the Villaga family in 1650.

NEW BY-LAWS ARE PROPOSED

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO SECURE DESIRED PERMISSION.

ELMHURST, March 14—Laruka Council, No. 46, Degree of Pocahontas, held a meeting last night at Blackman's Hall. A new set of by-laws, entirely changing the character of the lodge, was introduced by the committee The proposed change will make the body a benefit order, whereas it is at present merely a social institution. Final action in the measure will be taken within a few weeks.

Several months will be required to perfect the organization on the new lines. The Grand Circle at San Francisco will first pass upon the matter, and if its consent be withheld, nothing can be done.

Mrs. Fred Jordan, chairman; Mrs. C. S. Alvord and Fred Jordan constitute the committee in charge of altering the by-laws

MRS. CRAMER BURIED.

The funeral of Mrs. Nellie Cramer of this place was held at San Leandro yesterday at noon. Saint Leander's Catholic Church was the scene of the service, at which Father O'Mahoney presided.

Mrs Pickerel, who lives on the Alvin tract in Elmhurst is the sister and only relative of deceased.

Interment was at San Lorenzo Catholic cemetery.

COLLECTS TAX.

HIGH SPEED ENGINE FOR SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

Runs Three Hundred Miles in Three Hours and Will Revolutionize Transportation.

CHICAGO, March 14.—Three thousand miles without a stop and at the rate of 100 miles or more an hour, is the capacity of a new type of locomotive which has been ordered by the Southern Pacific Railroad. If it does all that its makers promise for it, this locomotive, which is a revision of the Dissel engine, will revolutionize transportation.

The locomotive, or really power house on wheels, is entirely different from anything in use. The cost of operating it will be less than one-half of the cost of operating the present type of steam engine. Fuel oil, costing but 3 or 5 cents a gallon, is the only fuel that has to be purchased and there is no necessity for erecting and maintaining expensive water tanks or coal chutes.

The machine is what is known as the four-stroke cycle. There is a compressed air reservoir from which the power is obtained for starting. This gives the piston its first stroke, when it takes in the air alone at atmospheric pressure and temperature. The second stroke compresses this air and raises it to a temperature of about 1000 degrees Fahrenheit. The third stroke is what is known as the working stroke. The oil is sprayed into the hot air, the amount being regulated by governors. During the first part of this stroke the combustion of this oil is carried on at a constant pressure for a period that is regulated by the amount of oil sprayed. The second part of the stroke is practically an expansion, with transference of heat, and the fourth stroke exhausts the gases.

BODIES OF DEAD RUSSIANS LYING IN HEAPS

Czar's Forces Out-Number Japanese 3 to 1, But Brown Men Slay Thousands.

JAPANESE LEFT ARMIES, Wednesday, March 8 (via Yinkow, March 13.)—Delayed in transmission.—From noon until dark yesterday the left column of General Oku's army, fought a desperate fight near Likampu, seven miles north of the River Hun and five miles west of the railway. The Russian force outnumbered the Japanese three to one. The Russians, who had been heavily reinforced from the south, rushed out of their trenches to meet the advancing Japanese, and a fierce hand-to-hand fight ensued, the soldiers using their bayonets and the officers their swords. The Russian casualties were over 10,000 killed and wounded and the Japanese a little over 3,000. The Russian dead were left on the field in heaps, among them many staff officers. Last night part of the extreme Left Army reached the railway between Mukden and Tie Pass, destroying it thereby preventing the trains from running north. The Russians are to-day retiring in large bodies along the main highway. Believing that there is fully one Japanese division across the railway a large force is now holding the main road to cut the Russian retreat. It was fortunate that more of the Left Army was across the railway last night, as it probably changed the outcome of the battle.

WOUNDED LEFT.

Without the railway they cannot remove their wounded, nor their heavy guns which will probably fall into the hands of the Japanese. The Russians in the center near the railway, began retiring at midnight. The Japanese pursuing briskly captured a few heavy guns, and machine guns. The right wing of General Oku's army, is to-day attacking Sujatun station ten miles south of Mukden. The station is at the junction of the projected Hsinmintun railway. The station is well fortified with heavy works, which were stubbornly defended. It was the center of operations against the villages north of the west angle of the railway line, where the Russians have strong works which were gallantly defended. The Japanese at noon occupied the villages on the main highway five miles south of Mukden, continuing their pursuit of the Russians who hastily retired towards the north. Large bodies of Russians have been moving steadily from Mukden northwest along the highway.

CHASING RUSSIANS.

The battle south of Mukden to-day became almost a pursuit the center following in retreat, the wings holding the line giving the extreme left time to firmly establish its positions astride the railway. Everything now depends upon the strength of this force and its ability to hold the railway, and to throw the retreating columns out on the roads, where the badly organized Russian transport column will probably break down.

PRISONERS TAKEN.

TOKIO, March 14, 11 a. m.—A telegram received to-day from headquarters in the field says:

"In the direction of Singching our forces have been dislodging the enemy from Yingpan, eighteen miles east of Fushun, and on March 11th occupied that place.

"In the direction of the Shakhe river all of our forces are continuing the pursuit of the remnant of the enemy, and many Russian officers and men are surrendering to our train guards in the mountainous districts east of the Tie Pass road.

"Additional spoils taken in the direction of the Shakhe river are wagons and carts captured southeast of Chiulikoutzu. They exceed 1,000 loaded with gun ammunition, small ammunition, entrenching tools, telegraph and telephone equipment, pontoon material, supplies and water boilers.

"They also carried 14,000 8-centimeter; 1400 15-centimeter shells and 1,200,000 small ammunition, and various military supplies.

"In the direction of Singching the spoils included 120,000 small ammunition, 800 shells and 3,000 entrenching tools."

HUNGRY RUSSIANS.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD, via Fusan, March 14.—The country is swarming with hungry disheartened Russians, who are surrendering in squads to any pursuing Japanese they meet. Leading Japanese officers have refused to criticise the lack of nobility displayed while driving the Russians beyond Tie Pass. Most of the foreign attaches with the Russian army including two Americans and one English officer were captured at Mukden.

GIVES CONTRACTS FOR WORK

BOARD OF EDUCATION BUYS THE HARDWARE FOR VARIOUS BUILDINGS.

A large number of contractors gathered at the meeting of the Board of Education last night to hear the result of the examination of the competitive bids submitted for the contracts for furnishing the hardware for the various school buildings to be erected by the Board. From samples on file with the Board the Committee on School Houses and Sites made the following selection and report, which was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Board and the contract awarded in accordance with the recommendation. The report is as follows:

AWARD CONTRACTS.

"Oakland, March 13, 1905.

"To the Honorable, the Board of Education of the City of Oakland. Gentlemen: Your Committee on School Houses and Sites has made careful examination of the proposals for furnishing hardware, and we are prepared to recommend that the bid of John P. Maxwell be accepted for the following:

"For Small Doors, Lockers, etc. Lock 6769 with master keys for each building, four keys furnished, and grand master keyed for all buildings, with five grand master keys furnished at $14 per dozen. Knob for locker doors 8491 Bower Barff finish, 95c per dozen.

"Butts. For entrance doors, butt No. 60 5x6, old copper or solid bronze, at $2.90 per pair.

"Butts for inside doors, No. 241, genuine Bower Barff, 4½x4½, as per sample, 60c per pair.

"Butts for lockers. Butts No. 241 3x2 Bower Barff finish at $2.40 per dozen pairs.

"Heavy Wrought Sash Fasts, Fitch pattern, No. 120½, genuine Bower Barff finish, $1.25 per dozen.

"Heavy cast bar sash lifts as per sample, No. 053½, genuine Bower Barff, at $1.10 per dozen; No. 020 sash socket, genuine Bower Barff, at 90c per dozen.

"These goods all to be Russell & Irwin manufacture, and in all cases to be to the entire satisfaction of the Board of Education.

"We further recommend that the contract for furnishing the hardware complete for lavatories, at $4.60 each, and for furnishing sash chain at 4½c a foot, as per sample, and sash pulleys at $1 per dozen, as per sample (but 2½ in. pulleys), and that the transom lifts and pivots complete, in Bower Barff finish, as per sample, at 75c each, be awarded to A. Rettigstein & Co., 971 Broadway, Oakland.

"That all bids for door stops and door checks be rejected, and that the certified checks of the unsuccessful bidders be returned at once, and that the certified checks of the bidders to whom contracts have been awarded, be returned as soon as the contracts are signed and filed. Respectfully,

"JOHN D. ISAACS,
"GEORGE E. RANDOLPH,
"F. M. HATHAWAY,
"Committee on School Houses and Sites."

The next matter taken up by the Board was the consideration of bids for doing work upon the Franklin Street School.

CONCRETE AND METAL WORK.

Bids for concrete and metal work were as follows: Collins Fire Proofing Co., $16,774; the Roebling Construction Company, $15,450; Western Expanded Metal and Fire Proofing Co., $13,680; Dyer Brothers Golden West Iron Works, $15,900; American Bridge Company of New York, $17,000; Ralston Iron Works, $15,740; Minneapolis Steel and Machinery Co., $18,380.

TERRA COTTA WORK.

Bids for the construction of the brick, stone and artificial stone work on the Franklin Street School were received as follows:

Childs & Arlett, $42,000; P. J. Walker, $42,390; M. Carroll, $45,320.

FOR LAFAYETTE SCHOOL.

Bids for the brick and stone work on the Lafayette School building were received as follows:

Childs & Arlett, $9,847; J. J. Walker, $9,769; M. Carroll, $9,500.

FOR MOVING BUILDING.

Two bids for moving the wooden section of the Grant School building were received as follows:

Wm. P. Grant, $543; Joseph Bayles & Son, $350.

A bid of $95 was received from D. E. Brown to construct a tile drain on two sides of the Lafayette School addition. All of the foregoing bids were referred to the Committee on School Houses and Sites for investigation.

APPOINT CENSUS MARSHAL.

By a unanimous vote the Board of Education appointed Mailer Searles as Census Marshal, he having done the work very satisfactorily last year and the following resolution was adopted fixing his compensation and giving authority to employ extra help:

"Resolved: That the pay of chief census marshal be fixed at the sum of five dollars per day, and that of each assistant census marshal at the sum of four dollars per day for each day actually employed.

"That the Board of Education proceed to appoint a chief census marshal and two assistants, and in addition thereto each member of the Board shall, on or before the first day of April, 1905, name for appointment one assistant census marshal.

"That the City Superintendent of Schools be and he is hereby authorized to employ, if in his judgment he shall deem it necessary, additional help to act as assistant census marshals or tracers."

NEWARK GETS AN INCH OF RAIN

NEWARK, March 14.—The members of the Newark band gave a dance Friday evening at Watkin's Hall, and a pleasant incident of the occasion was their presentation to Byron Terrill of a watch fob, with gold locket engraved on one side, "Given by Newark band to their leader on his twenty-first birthday"; on the reverse in monogram, "B. A. T., on his twenty-first birthday." Besides this token of esteem from friends Mr. Terrill was given a costly gold watch, the case most elaborately chased. This gift was from his father and mother.

The rainfall from Sunday, 9 a. m., to Monday, 9 a. m., was just one inch.

Mrs. Forbes, who has been for some time past visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Roble, leaves this week for her new home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Irving of Oakland has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Fred Burt for some days past.

Mrs. F. C. Jarvis of Berkeley is visiting Mrs. Caleb Haley and other friends this week.

It is said Mr. Day, formerly foreman at the planing mill, and who is now in Alabama, is about to return.

SANITARY DISTRICT.

By a vote of 3 "Yes" and 14 "Noe," the propositon to form a sanitary district in Melrose was carried last Saturday. The officers elected have already been published.

BASKET SOCIAL A SUCCESS

THE FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD PASSES A PLEASANT EVENING WITH ITS FRIENDS.

LIVERMORE, March 14.—The local branch of the Fraternal Brotherhood has been making rapid progress lately and is at present one of the strongest of the local lodges, socially and financially. As a part of the program to make the lodge socially successful a basket social was given last night in connection with the initiation of four members. The ladies each put up dainty lunches, which were auctioned off to the highest bidder. Dancing was also a part of the evening's program, the music being furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dumann.

H. L. Camp, who has during the recent meeting of the State Legislature held a position as watchman, returned home Saturday night.

Wayne Phillips of San Francisco spent Sunday visiting his aunt, Miss G. E. Thomas.

Frank Harp of Crockett is home on sick leave.

Walter Hunter, who has recently been confined in a San Francisco hospital on account of wounds received in the Philippines, was here Sunday to spend a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Hunter.

Miss Maud Mitchel of San Francisco spent a portion of last week with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Mitchel.

Miss Olive Sanderson of San Francisco has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Donahue for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Currie spent Sunday in town visiting friends and relatives.

TOWN ABANDONED.

VALPARAISO, Chile, March 14.—Pisagua, forty-four miles north of Iquique, with a population of 20,000, is being abandoned by the inhabitants owing to the fact that hundreds of people there have died of bubonic plague. Houses seemingly deserted have been opened by the police and found to contain bodies in an advanced stage of puterfication.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard of 209 W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Osgoods' drug stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington streets.

The Wheat's Top Coat

is a woody outside cover of the grain and serves a good purpose—the same as a walnut shell—but you can't digest either. The entire outer coating is removed from the grains of wheat before making the delicious and appetizing California Wheatine.

Nickel-plated fuel in bunches. All good grains.

CUTICURA GROWS HAIR

Scalp Cleared of Dandruff and Hair Restored by One Box of Cuticura and

ONE CAKE OF CUTICURA SOAP

A. W. Taft of Independence, Va., writing under date of Sept. 15, 1904, says: "I have had falling hair and dandruff for twelve years and could get nothing to help me. Finally I bought one box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap, and they cleared my scalp of the dandruff and stopped the hair falling. Now my hair is growing as well as ever. I am highly pleased with Cuticura Soap as a toilet soap. (signed) A. W. Taft, Independence, Va."

THEO. GIER'S

is produced from vines that were imported from the Sauterne District of France in 1884. No foreign white wine can compare with it, being mellow, rich in flavor and lacking the acidity so common in most dry wines. No matter how long in bottle it is absolutey clear. It is remarkably cheap for its type of wine.

I CURED MY RUPTURE

I Will Show You How to Cure Yours FREE.

I was helpless and bed-ridden for years from a double rupture. No truss could hold. Doctors said I would die if not operated on. I fooled them all and cured myself by a simple discovery. I will send the cure free by mail if you write for it. It cured me and has since cured thousands. It will cure you. Write to-day. Capt. W. A. Collings, Box 818, Watertown, N. Y.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of Francisco Galindo, Deceased.

Order to show cause why order of sale of real estate should not be made.

It appearing to the said Court by the petition this day presented and filed by Ynez Peralta de Galindo, the executrix of the will of Francisco Galindo, deceased, praying for an order of sale of real estate, that it is necessary to sell the whole or some portion of the real estate belonging to the estate of said deceased, to pay the debts outstanding against the said deceased, and the debts, expenses and charges of administration;

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before the said Superior Court on Friday, the 14th day of April, 1905, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Courtroom of said Court, Department 1, at the Court House in the City of Oakland, then and there to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said executrix to sell so much of said real estate as shall be necessary, and that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Oakland Tribune, a newspaper printed and published in said Alameda County.

Dated March 11th, 1905.

HENRY A. MELVIN,
Judge of the Superior Court.

LOOMIS WILL GET THE PLACE

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Francis B. Loomis, First Assistant Secretary of State, will be appointed, it is planned [illegible] ambassador to Mexico, in succe[illegible] to Edwin H. Conger, when the latter shall have retired next summer to become a candidate for the Governorship of Iowa.

WILLIE BRITT AND NOLAN NEARLY COME TO BLOWS.

Have Heated Argument Over J. Edward and "Bat" Nelson.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Billy Nolan and Willie Britt met at Harry Corbett's yesterday and exchanged a few compliments, which interested the spectators and sometimes amused them. The meeting was not by appointment—it was merely accidental. Without much formality Nolan expressed the opinion that the strongest team in San Francisco could not pull Britt into the same ring with Nelson. This was enough to set Brother Willie's blood boiling.

"Nice talk for you to make," piped Britt, straightening his football locks in shape.

"It is so nevertheless," returned Nolan, never taking his eyes off Willie.

"What you talking about?" roared Willie. "Hasn't Britt beaten your man? Didn't he knock him to pieces and punch his head full of holes? Why should he be afraid of Nelson?"

"Britt got the decision, it is true," returned Nolan, his face flushed with anger, "but how did he get it? He got it by having a referee who took good care that Nelson did no damage to Britt when they were fighting close. Why, Britt could lick Jeffries if a referee held the big fellow like Roche did Nelson."

"You make me sick," fired back Brother Willie. "Roche did not hold Nelson's arms. It was Britt who took hold of Nelson in close quarters and not Roche. Why, Roche is an invalid. How could he hold your fighting demon which you claim is as strong as Samson?"

"No, Britt, what I say is true," continued Nolan, "and you know your brother would rather fight anybody than Nelson. To show you what the public thought of that last fight I'll bet you $100 that if they meet again Nelson will be the favorite in the betting. Will you take it?"

"We will take that bet," said Willie, "after we have fought White. You could have had the match, but you didn't seem to want it."

The latter remark only added more fuel to the flame, and Nolan and Britt went at it hammer and tongs. Nolan reminded Britt of the article they sikned at Lakspur, and how he fluked out of posting his forfit with Harry Corbett. Britt claimed that Jimmy went to post his money, but failing to find Nolan at Corbett's at the time, did not make good. Nolan said this was no excuse, as his honey had already been placed with Corbett.

"But no matter about the forfeit," continued Willie. "We gave you a chance to fight before we signed with White. We offered to meet you on the same terms as we are fighting him."

"Yes," said Nolan, "you gave us fifteen minutes to consider your terms. That's all and you gave us the rush knowing that we would decline and you could sign with a man who has not fought in three years."

"Nothing of the sort," said Britt. "We gave you all the time we thought necessary."

Then Nolan proposed that they post another forfeit and box for winner take all, and fight at catch weights, but this proposition did not strike Willie favorably, though Jimmy may call Nolan before long. The managers chewed the rag for an hour without coming to any agreement. Jimmy Coffroth was a listener to the war of words, but had little to say. Once he did ask Nolan if he would sign article for 55 per cent. Nolan replied bluntly that he would not, as Nelson was entitled to as much of the purse as Britt, who was getting a bonus.

BIG FIVE WILL GIVE BATTLE

CHICAGO, March 14.—It is to be war to the knife between the "big five" of the beef combine and twenty-six firms and corporations classed as independent packers. The fight for a standing in the courts and before the public will be begun in Chicago on March 20, when the special Federal Grand Jury will begin its investigation of the affairs of the alleged beef combination. A fund of $3,000,000 has been raised to carry on the fight against the beef combine and to set the claims of the independent packers squarely before the American people.

The independent packers are understood to have held meetings in Kansas City the latter part of last week. These conferences were called to devise plans, offensive and defensive, so that when the Federal Grand Jury takes up the subject one week from today they will be in a position to defend their business interests against any allegations which may be charged against them by the "trust," which is said to be seeking a means of shifting the responsibility for the present infraction of the anti-trust law.

The Kansas City conferences of last week were transferred to Chicago on Saturday and were continued today. The leaders of the "independent" coterie met during the forenoon and this afternoon in the First National Bank building. John Sulzberger, resident vice-president of Schwarzchild & Sulzberger, the largest of the independent packers, attended the conference. When questioned afterward he refused to discuss the subject of the Government investigation.

Joseph Weissenbach, attorney for the Schwarzchild & Sulzberger Company, was asked:

"How about the story that the S. and S. people have been offered $23,000,000 by the trust for their business?"

"I know nothing about that," said Weissenbach. "See Mr. Sulzberger."

More than two hundred subpoenas have been issued by the Federal authorities for the forthcoming inquiry by the Grand Jury. Among these are a number which have been served on the "independents" at their own request, it is said. They are reported to have given information to the secret service department in Washington under John E. Wilkie, to Captain Porter and his men of the same department in Chicago and to others in Kansas City and elsewhere.

MRS. SCHLUETER IS CALLED

PROMINENT WOMAN IN GERMAN CIRCLES PASSES AWAY AT HER HOME.

Mrs. Sophie Schlueter, an esteemed resident of the community, passed away at her home, 570 Twenty-fourth street, yesterday, after an illness of two months. She was 68 years of age.

The deceased for twenty-five years had been a leader in German social circles and in religious work. She was the widow of the late J. J. Schlueter and the mother of Adolph, Max and Theodore Schlueter, three prominent citizens of this city.

She was a native of Germany, but had resided here for more than a quarter of a century. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the family residence. The Rev. A. Yatho of the First Lutheran Church of San Francisco will officiate at the services. The remains, according to the wish of the deceased, will be incinerated at the Oakland Crematory.

PRES. ROOSEVELT DECLARES DIVORCE IS THE CURSE OF SOCIETY

What the President Says of the Mother, Home and Divorce

MARRIAGE is a partnership in which each partner is in honor bound to think of the rights of the other.

ON the whole I respect the woman who does her duty even more than I respect the man who does his.

The nation is in a bad way if there is no real home; if the man is not a good husband and father.

HEARTIEST scorn should be aroused at lack of tenderness on part of a man toward wife and children.

EASY divorce is a bane to any nation; a curse to society; a menace to home; incitement to unhappiness.

RACE that is selfish and practices race suicide would conclusively show that it was unfit to exist.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—An address by President Roosevelt was the feature of the evening session last night of the National Congress of Mothers, now holding its triennial convention at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church. There was an immense crowd at the church, composed largely of women, and when President Roosevelt, accompanied by Secretary Loeb, arrived he was given a cordial reception.

He read his speech, but now and then interjected some extemporaneous remarks when he wished to emphasize a point.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

President Roosevelt spoke as follows:

"In our modern times industrial civilization there are many and grave dangers to counterbalance the splendors and the triumphs. It is not a good thing to see cities grow at disproportionate speed relatively to the country; for the small land owners, the men who own their little homes, and therefore to a very large extent the men who will till the farms, the men of the soil, have hitherto made the foundation of lasting national life in every State; and, if the foundation becomes either too weak or too narrow, the superstructure, no matter how attractive, is in imminent danger of falling.

THE FAMILY.

"But far more important than the question of the occupation of our citizens is the question of how their family life is conducted. No matter what that occupation may be, as long as there is a real home and as long as those who make up that home do their duty to one another, to their neighbors and to the State, it is of minor consequence whether the man's trade is plied in the country or the city, whether it calls for the work of the hands or for the work of the head.

"But the Nation is in a bad way if there is no real home, if the family is not of the right kind; if the man is not a good husband and father, if he is brutal or cowardly or selfish, if the woman has lost her sense of duty, if she is sunk in vapid self-indulgence or has let her nature be twisted so that she prefers a sterile pseudo-intellectuality to that great and beautiful development of character which comes only to those whose lives know the fullness of duty done, of effort made and self-sacrifice undergone.

"In the last analysis the welfare of the State depends absolutely upon whether or not the average family, the average man and woman and their children, represent the kind of citizenship fit for the foundation of a great nation; and if we fail to appreciate this we fail to appreciate the root morality upon which all healthy civilization is based.

WEALTH.

"No piled-up wealth, no splendor of material growth, no brilliance of artistic development, will permanently avail any people unless its home life is healthy, unless the average man possesses honesty, courage, common sense, and decency, unless he works hard and is willing at need to fight hard; and unless the average woman is a good wife, a good mother, able and willing to perform the first and greatest duty of womanhood, able and willing to bear, and to bring up as they should be brought up, healthy children, sound in body, mind, and character, and numerous enough so that the race shall increase and not decrease.

"There are certain old truths which will be true as long as this world endures, and which no amount of progress can alter. One of these is the truth that the primary duty of the husband is to be the home maker, the bread-winner for his wife and children, and that the primary duty of the woman is to be the helpmeet, the housewife, and mother. The woman should have ample educational advantages; but save in exceptional cases the man must be, and she need not be, and generally ought not to be, trained for a lifelong career as the family bread-winner; and, therefore, after a certain point the training of the two must normally be different because the duties of the two are normally different. This does not mean inequality of function, but it does mean that normally there must be dissimilarity of function. On the whole, I think the duty of the woman the more important, the more difficult, and the more honorable of the two; on the whole I respect the woman who does her duty even more than I respect the man who does.

ORDINARY WORK.

"No ordinary work done by a man is either as hard or as responsible as the work of a woman who is bringing up a family of small children; for upon her time and strength demands are made not only every hour of the day but often every hour of the night. She may have to get up night after night to take care of a sick child, and yet must by day continue to do all her household duties as well; and if the family means are scant she must usually enjoy even her rare holidays taking her whole brood of children with her. The birth pangs make all men the debtors of women. Above all our sympathy and regard are due to the struggling wives among those whom Abraham Lincoln called the plain people, and whom he so loved and trusted; for the lives of these women are often led on the lonely heights of quiet, self-sacrificing heroism.

HAPPY TASK.

"Just as the happiest and most honorable and most useful task that can be set any man is to earn enough for the support of his wife and family, for the bringing up and starting in life of his children, so the most important, the most honorable and desirable task which can be set any woman is to be a good and wise mother in a home marked by self-respect and mutual forbearance, by willingness to perform duty, and by refusal to sink into self-indulgence or avoid that which entails effort and self-sacrifice. Of course there are exceptional men and exceptional women who can do and ought to do much more than this, who can lead and ought to lead great careers of outside usefulness in addition to—not as substitutes for—their home work; but I am not speaking of exceptions; I am speaking of the primary duties, I am speaking of the average citizens, the average men and women who make up the Nation.

EASY LIFE.

"Inasmuch as I am speaking to an assemblage of mothers I shall have nothing whatever to say in praise of an easy life. Yours is the work which is never ended. No mother has an easy time, and most mothers have very hard times; and yet what true mother would barter her experience of joy and sorrow in exchange for a life of cold selfishness, which insists upon perpetual amusement and the avoidance of care, and which often finds its fit dwelling place in some flat designed to furnish with the least possible expenditure of effort the maximum of comfort and of luxury, but in which there is literally no place for children?

"The woman who is a good wife, a good mother, is entitled to our respect as is no one else; but she is entitled to it only because, and so long as, she is worthy of it. Effort and self-sacrifice are the law of worthy life for the man as for the woman; though neither the effort nor the self-sacrifice may be the same for the one as for the other. I do not in the least believe in the patient Griselda type of woman, in the woman who submits to gross and long continued ill treatment, any more than I believe in a man who tamely submits to wrongful aggression. No wrongdoing is so abhorrent as wrongdoing by a man towards the wife and children who should arouse every tender feeling in his nature. Selfishness towards them, lack of tenderness towards them, lack of consideration for them, above all, brutality in any form towards them, should arouse the heartiest scorn and indignation in every upright soul.

SELF RESPECT.

"I believe in the woman's keeping her self-respect just as I believe in the man's doing so. I believe in her rights just as much as I believe in the man's, and indeed a little more; and I regard marriage as a partnership, in which each partner is in honor bound to think of the rights of the other as well as of his or her own. But I think that the duties are even more important than the rights; and in the long run I think that the reward is ampler and greater for duty well done, than for the insistence upon individual rights, necessary though this, too, must often be. Your duty is hard, your responsibility great; but greatest of all is your reward. I do not pity you in the least. On the contrary, I feel respect and admiration for you.

WOMAN'S KEEPING.

"Into the woman's keeping is committed the destiny of the generations to come after us. In bringing up your children you mothers must remember that while it is essential to be loving and tender it is no less essential to be wise and firm. Foolishness and affection must not be treated as interchangeable terms; and besides training your sons and daughters in the softer and milder virtues you must seek to give them those stern and hardy qualities which in after life they will surely need. Some children will go wrong in spite of the best training; and some will go right even when their surroundings are most unfortunate; nevertheless an immense amount depends upon the family training. If you mothers through weakness bring up your sons to be selfish and to think only of themselves, you will be responsible for much sadness among the women who are to be their wives in the future. If you let your daughters grow up idle, perhaps under the mistaken impression that as you yourselves have had to work hard they shall know only enjoyment, you are preparing them to be useless to others and burdens to themselves. Teach boys and girls alike that they are not to look forward to lives spent in avoiding difficulties but to lives spent in overcoming difficulties. Teach them that work, for themselves and also for others, is not a curse but a blessing; seek to make them happy, to make them enjoy life, but seek also to make them face life with the steadfast resolution to wrest success from labor and adversity, and to do their whole duty before God and to man. Surely she who can thus train her sons and her daughters is thrice fortunate among women.

MANY GOOD PEOPLE.

"Ther eare many good people who are denied the supreme blessing of children, and for these we have the respect and sympathy always due to those who, from no fault of their own are denied any of the other great blessings of life. But the man or woman who deliberately forgoes these blessings, whether from viciousness coldness, shallow-heartedness, self-indulgence, or mere failure to appreciate aright the difference between the all-important and the unimportant—why, such a creature merits contempt as hearty as any visited upon the soldier who runs away in battle, or upon the man who refuses to work for the support of those dependent upon him, and who though ablebodied is yet content to eat in idleness the bread which others provide.

MODERN LIFE.

"The existence of women of this type forms one of the most unpleasant and unwholesome features of modern life. If any one is so dim of vision as to fail to see what a thoroughly unlovely creature such a woman is I wish they would read Judge Robert Grant's novel "Unleavened Bread," ponder seriously the character of Selma, and think of the fate that would surely overcome any nation which developed its average and typical woman along such lines. Unfortunately it would be untrue to say that this type exists only in American novels. That it also exists in American life is made unpleasantly evident by the statistics as to the dwindling families in some localities. It is made evident in equally sinister fashion by the census statistics as to divorce, which are fairly appalling; for easy divorce is now as it ever has been, a bane to any nation, a curse to society, a menace to the home, an incitement to married unhappiness and to immorality, an evil thing for men and a still more hideous evil for women. These unpleasant tendencies in our American life are made evident by articles such as those which I actually read not long ago in a certain paper, where a clergyman was quoted, seemingly with approval, as expressing the general American attitude when he said that the ambition of any save a rich man should be to rear two children only, so as to give his children an opportunity 'to taste a few of the good things of life.'

MORAL TEACHER.

"This man, whose profession and calling should have made him a moral teacher, actually set before others the ideal, not of training children to do their duty, not of sending them forth with stout hearts and ready minds to win triumphs for themselves and their country, but of allowing them the opportunity, and giving them the privilege of making their own place in the world, but, forsooth, of keeping the number of children so limited that they might 'taste a few good things!' The way to give a child a fair chance in life is not to bring it up in luxury, but to see that it has the kind of training that will give it strength of character. Even apart from the vital question of national life, and regarding only the individual interest of the children themselves, happiness in the true sense is a hundredfold more apt to come to any given member of a healthy family of healthy-minded children, well brought up, well educated, but taught that they must shift for themselves, must win their own way, and by their own exertions make their own positions of usefulness, than it is apt to come to those whose parents themselves have acted on and have trained their children to act on, the selfish and sordid theory that the whole end of life is 'to taste a few good things.'

TWO CHILDREN.

"The intelligence of the remark is on a par with its morality, for the most rudimentary mental process would have shown the speaker that if the average family in which there are children contained but two children the nation as a whole would decrease in population so rapidly that in two or three generations it would very deservely be on the point of extinction so that the people who had acted on this base and selfish doctrine would be giving place to others with braver and more robust ideals. Nor would such a result be in any way regrettable; for a race that practiced such doctrine—that is, a race that practiced race suicide—would thereby conclusively show that it was unfit to exist, and that it had better give place to people who had forgotten the primary laws of their being.

"To sum up, then, the whole matter is simple enough. If either a race or an individual prefers the pleasures of mere effortless ease, of self-indulgence to the infinitely deeper, the infinitely higher pleasures that come to those who know the toil and the weariness but also the joy, of hard duty well done, why, that race or that individual must inevitably in the end pay the penalty of leading a life both vapid and ignoble. No man and no woman really worthy of the name can care for the life spent solely or chiefly in the avoidance of risk and trouble and labor Save in exceptional cases the prizes worth having in life must be paid for, and the life worth living must be a life of work for a worthy end, and ordinarily of work more for others than for one's self.

THE MOTHER.

"The man is but a poor creature whose effort is not rather for the betterment of his wife and children than for himself; aand as for the mother, her very name stands for loving unselfishness and self-abnegation and in any society fit to exist, is fraught with associations which render it holy.

"The woman's task is not easy—no task worth doing is easy—but in doing it, and when she has done it, there shall come to her the highest and holiest joy known to mankind; and having done it, she shall have the reward prophesied in Scripture; for her husband and her children, yes, and all people who realize that her work lies at the foundation of all national happiness and greatness, shall rise up and call her blessed."

WOMEN USE THE SWORD.

All well educated Spanish women are taught from the earliest years to handle the sword, and as a result they are noted for their admirable figures and easy walk.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR WINE OF CARDUI

With Wine of Cardui on sale at every drug store, any woman can secure relief from the distressing pains of female weakness. With this great woman's tonic painful periods and bearing down pains can be avoided. Who would suffer unnecessary menstrual pain?

Wine of Cardui cures menstrual disorders in nineteen cases out of every twenty, and no woman who has suffered from this ailment has ever taken Wine of Cardui without securing great benefit, even when her trouble was complicated with more serious weakness.

Wine of Cardui has cured all manner of female weakness for three-quarters of a century, and a woman who has tried it has confidence in it—she will use no other because she knows Wine of Cardui cures.

Ask your Druggist for Wine of Cardui and be sure he gives it to you.

Wine of Cardui costs but $1.00 a bottle. It is within the reach of every woman. It brings positive relief, where the treatment of the best specialists fails—and a specialist's treatment is expensive.

Wine of Cardui is a cheap treatment—cheap because the cure is quick and certain. If you are trying other treatment and have failed to secure relief, Wine of Cardui is the medicine you should take.

FREEMAN, IND., March 2, 1904.

I have been suffering since last summer with change of life. I have doctored for it but found no relief until I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught. Before I commenced taking them I had to hire my washing done and now I can work all day and never tire. I think Wine of Cardui a blessing to woman. I cannot praise it too highly. I wish all the suffering women would use the medicine and get well.

CONCESSIONS TO AMERICANS

THOS. H. WILLIAMS, W. F. HERRIN AND OTHERS IN THE COMPANY.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Thomas H. Williams, president of the California Jockey Club, is at the head of a local syndicate which has financed one of the most important enterprises ever launched in the City of Mexico. This syndicate, which was organized by Mr. Williams under the title of the Mexican International Investment Company, furnished the necessary capital to build and equip the new abattoir and packing plant for the Mexican metropolis. The gigantic nature of the enterprise may be appreciated when it is explained that the Government of the republic over which President Porfirio Diaz rules has granted a concession running for a term of twenty years and securing to the company in question the exclusive right to slaughter cattle, sheep, hogs, goats, etc., within what is known as the federal district, which embraces the City of Mexico and contains a population of over 500,000. The unsanitary condition and general inadequacy of the old abattoirs of the district made a change to modern sanitary methods imperative in order that the health of the inhabitants might not be imperiled, and American investment was invited for the reason that the chief moneyed men of Mexico are connected with so many important industrial enterprises that it was impossible for them to provide the capital required for all their large undertakings.

The officers and directors of the Mexican International Investment Company are: Thomas H. Williams, president; Adam Andrew, vice-president; W. F. Herrin, John W. Ferris and George E. Bates.

The new model abattoir of the City of Mexico, built with funds furnished by the syndicate, has just been opened with public formalities. President Diaz and all the highest officials of the Mexican Government attended the inauguration of the enterprise and witnessed the initial operations of the plant.

The abattoir has a capacity for slaughtering in eight hours 500 beeves, 600 sheep or goats and 800 hogs, and before 10 a. m. each day 300 beeves, 360 sheep or goats and 480 hogs are slaughtered and dressed, ready for market. The capacity of the refrigerating department is sufficient for the storage, with all the requirements of hygiene, of 1,000 beef carcasses, 1,.00 carcasses of sheep or goats and 500 carcasses of hogs, or 2,700 carcasses of all kinds.

"Californians, I think, are not sufficiently alive to the importance of developing their intercourse with Mexico," said Mr. Williams yesterday. "The commercial relations between Mexico and the Pacific Coast should be infinitely greater than they are today, for it may be said that we have only begun to cultivate these relations. I believe that with better facilities of transportation between the City of Mexico and San Francisco the bulk of the Mexican business, which now goes to the East, could be readily secured by this city."

PLEASED WITH CONGRESSMAN

JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND'S WORK MEETS APPROVAL OF UNION MEN.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Congressman Joseph R. Knowland has left here for home. He has worked hard and diligently throughout the session and will seek rest in the South before he goes to Alameda.

Mr. Knowland will go to New Orleans first and thence to Southern California, where he will remain a week.

Just before he left here he received the following pleasing resolutions:

"Industrial Lodge No. 610, International Association of Machinists, District No. 14.

"Office of Secretary, 1040 Chester street.

"Oakland, Cal., February 28, 1905.

"Hon. Joseph Knowland—Dear Sir: The above-named Lodge of Machinists, at meeting held on evening of February 27, 1905, instructed me to convey to you and the other members of our Congressional representatives from our State our most sincere thanks for the interest, and also the success you had, in obtaining the appropriation for Mare Island Navy Yard to commence the building of vessels. We can only add that you may keep up the good work until all this class of work is done in the various yards, and good American citizens kept at work and not compelled to compete with cheap Japanese labor.

"Assuring you of our hearty co-operation along these lines and of any assistance we may be to you, I am, yours respectfully,

"LEWIS T. STEVENSON,
"Recording Secretary."

MAY STOP WORK

CONGRESS FAILED TO GRANT APPROPRIATION FOR WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary Metcalf is preparing to take up with Secretary Taft the question of the transferring from the War Department to the Department of Commerce and Labor a tract of land of about twenty-four acres on Angel island to be used as an immigrant station. Congress having made the appropriation for beginning the work and having designated Angel island, it is expected that the transfer will soon be effected and work will be begun on actual construction soon after July 1.

If Kuropatkin's Army

had been in a place as secure as the vaults of the Central Bank, the Mikado would not now be holding such a series of rejoicings at Tokio.

When you think of safety for valuables, your thoughts should be directed toward these superb safety deposit vaults than which there are none more secure in the world. And when you come to think of it, isn't it folly to risk anything of value, whether it be money, diamonds, jewelry, heirlooms or valuable papers, when for the small sum of four dollar—but little more than a cent a day—you can have the full advantage of all the safeguards which these magnificent vaults guarantee.

Suppose you have but one valuable paper, a deed to a piece of land for instance, and you should lose it; rats might eat it, dampness might destroy it, fire might consume it. Think of all the trouble and expense you would be put to in obtaining a duplicate. And all this can be avoided by using one of our safety deposit boxes which is big enough to hold a hundred of such papers.

TO THE PEOPLE OF OAKLAND

Open Letter from Kind Hearted Ohioan.

The following letter will be of great interest to our readers. It breathes the true spirit of charity, of helping others. May it do the good that Mr. Carpenter hopes for;

"To the People of Oakland;

Although I may be unknown to you, yet I hope my experience will carry the weight that earnestness always should. I believe in doing good to my fellow men, and in no way can I help them better than in pointing out the road to health.

Hyomei, the treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing, has done me so much good that I want everybody to know of its merits. I had a very bad case of catarrh, and Hyomei completely cured me. I have recommended it to my neighbors, and they, too, have been cured. Now I want everybody in all parts of the country to know what Hyomei has done for me."

"George W. Carpenter,
"Vincent, Ohio."

Hyomei contains the healing balsams that are found in the air upon the mountains, where catarrh is unknown. It destroys all catarrhal germs in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, and makes complete cures.

A complet outfit costs, but $1., while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents. Ask Osgood Bros. to show you the strong guarantee under which they sell the treatment.
